

CONTENTS

	PAGE
◆ Chapter-heads	I-5
◆ Central Sales Tax Act, 1956 : Section-wise Index	I-29

1

OBJECTS AND BASIC SCHEME OF THE CST ACT

1.1	CST on way out but some concepts will continue	1
1.2	Objects of CST Act	2
1.2-1	Basic scheme of the CST Act	2
1.2-2	Inter-State and Intra-State Sale	3
1.2-3	Taxable event in sales tax	4
1.2-4	Categories of Sales	4
1.2-5	Recovery from customer is not essential for sales tax	6
1.3	Background of CST Act	6
1.3-1	Historical background of CST Act	6
1.3-2	Incompatibility of VAT and CST	8
1.4	Change proposed in Central Sales Tax, vide Finance Bill, 2016	8

2

CONSTITUTIONAL BACKGROUND OF CST

2.1	Constitution of India	9
2.2	Administration of State	9
2.2-1	Judicial Organ	10
2.2-2	Legislative Organ	10
2.2-3	Administrative Organ	11
2.3	Taxation under Constitution	11
2.3-1	Union list relevant to taxation	11
2.3-2	State list pertaining to taxation	12
2.3-3	Aspect theory of taxation	13
2.3-4	Service tax and VAT (sales tax) are mutually exclusive, VAT cannot be imposed on value of service	13

CONTENTS

I-8

	PAGE
2.4 Restrictions on powers of taxation	14
2.4-1 No restriction on Inter-State Trade and Commerce	15
2.4-2 Limitations of Taxation Powers	15
2.4-3 Sales Tax does not directly affect free movement of goods	15
2.5 Tax on local goods and goods from other States must be same	17
2.6 Constitutional validity of Entry Tax	20

3

INTER-STATE SALE

3.1	Charging section of CST	21
3.2	Meaning of 'Inter-State Sale'	21
3.2-1	Sale which 'Occasions movement of goods'	23
3.3	Sale should occasion movement of goods	28
3.3-1	Property passing in the State where sale takes place	28
3.3-2	Contract did not provide movement of goods, but movement of goods incident of contract of sale	29
3.3-3	Case where movement inextricably connected with sales	30
3.3-4	Dispatch through depot or branch only for name sake	33
3.3-5	Person buying goods in one State and necessarily despatching to another State	34
3.3-6	Goods moving under 'agreement to sale' is also 'Inter-State sale'	35
3.3-7	Goods moving as per condition of supply	36
3.3-8	Cases where movement of goods was compulsory as per statutory provisions	38
3.3-9	Contract need not be in writing - It can be inferred also	38
3.3-10	Sale not inter-State if movement of goods is not related to contract for sale	38
3.3-11	Sale can be inter-State even if goods are processed after clearance from place of dealer	40
3.3-12	Sale direct to ultimate buyer but delivery through local dealer	40
3.3-13	Inter-State sale even in case of works contract	40
3.3-14	Temporary movement through another State is not Inter-State sale	41
3.3-15	Sale not inter-State simply because buyer is from outside the State	41
3.4	Auction sale	41

4INTER STATE SALE BY TRANSFER OF DOCUMENTS

4.1	Document of title and its transfer	43
4.1-1	What is 'Document of Title of Goods'	44
4.1-2	Transfer of Document	44
4.1-3	Sending documents through Bank	46
4.2	What is transfer 'during Movement of Goods'	46
4.2-1	Movement of goods is complete only when delivery is taken	46
4.2-2	All sales during movement of goods can be under section 3(a) of CST Act?	48
4.2-3	Contract for subsequent sale should be after commencement of movement of goods	50
4.2-4	Precautions to be taken to ensure that dealer is not affected by SC decision in A & G Projects	52
4.3	Illustrations of transfer during movement of goods	53
4.3-1	Buyer and seller can be in same State	53
4.3-2	Buyer in one State, goods bought from another State, but goods despatched to third State	54
4.3-3	Goods transferred to another buyer as first buyer did not take delivery	55
4.3-4	Hire purchase or leasing can be during transit	55
4.3-5	Sale through commission agent is not covered if property does not pass to him	55

5STOCK TRANSFER/BRANCH TRANSFER

5.1	Background of 'stock transfer'	57
5.1-1	Stock transfer for works contract	57
5.1-2	No stock transfer of tailor made goods	58
5.2	Consignment Agent	58
5.2-1	Agency need not be in writing	58
5.2-2	Payment of advance by agent does not mean that the agent is purchaser	58
5.2-3	Principal need not be registered in the State where consignment agent is operating	59
5.2-4	Distinction between contract of sale and contract of agency	59
5.2-5	Distinction between commission agent, consignment agent and C&F agent	59
5.3	When Stock Transfer is treated as Inter-State sale	60
5.4	Illustrations where claim of stock transfer not upheld	61

CONTENTS

I-10

	PAGE
5.4-1 Goods despatched through depot but only one known buyer	61
5.4-2 Goods despatched through agent to buyer already identified	61
5.4-3 Buyer identified before removal of goods from factory	64
5.4-4 Direct despatch to buyer from factory	66
5.4-5 Submission of C form at appellate stage if transaction held as inter-state sale	66
5.5 Illustrations where claim of stock transfer was upheld	66
5.5-1 Movement of standard goods not inter-state sale even if there were firm orders in other State	67
5.5-2 Movement of goods for mixing in other State or using for manufacture in other goods and then ultimate sale	68
5.5-3 Consignment agent paying advance does not mean it is inter-state sale	69
5.6 Double taxation when stock transfer held as sale	69
5.7 Comparison between stock transfer and direct sale	70
5.8 F form for stock transfer	70
5.8-1 Burden of proof in case of consignment despatches	70
5.8-2 'F' form is mandatory	72
5.8-3 Submission of 'F' form is not a conclusive evidence, but it is conclusive after Assessing Officer passes an order	72
5.8-4 Form F required if goods sent outside the State for job work, repairs etc.	73
5.8-5 Goods can be sent to other State for further manufacture	75
5.8-6 Enquiry regarding truth of contents in Form F can be conducted at the time of assessment or even later	75
5.8-7 Contents of Form F	76
5.8-8 Procedural requirements in respect of issue of form F	77
5.8-9 F form only in case of completed transactions, not in case of rejection	78
5.8-10 Missing F form does not mean that goods moved	78
5.8-11 Penalty if details in invoice and F form contradictory	78

6

SALE OUTSIDE THE STATE

6.1 Background	79
6.1-1 What is 'Sale outside a State'	79
6.1-2 Sale inside a State	80

	PAGE
6.2 Location of goods is vitally important	80
6.2-1 Sale when goods are 'ascertained'	81
6.3 Inter-State sale is not 'sale inside State'	81
6.4 'Inter-State sale' or 'sale during export' is not 'intra-state sale'	82
6.4-1 Illustrations of Intra-State sale	82
6.5 Sale when there is no foreign destination	82
6.6 Sale to ship which is within territorial waters is 'local sale'	83
6.6-1 Territorial waters of India	85
6.6-2 Sale to foreign going vessels from bonded warehouse	87
6.6-3 Sale by transfer of documents when goods are in bonded warehouse	88
6.7 Situs of sale in Inter-State sale or during export	88

7

GOODS UNDER CST ACT

7.1 Definition of 'goods'	91
7.1-1 Goods must be 'movable'	91
7.1-2 Plant & machinery assembled at site is not 'goods'	93
7.1-3 Newspapers are not 'goods' for purpose of CST Act and State Act	94
7.1-4 Stock, shares etc. not liable under CST	95
7.1-5 Actionable claims are 'goods'	95
7.1-6 Sale of business is not sale of goods	96
7.1-7 Definition of 'goods' as per Constitution	97
7.2 Intangible articles are 'goods'	97
7.2-1 Electromagnetic waves transmitted through telephones is not 'goods'	103
7.2-2 Can there be inter-state sale of intangible goods ?	104
7.3 Software	104
7.3-1 Development of software for customer is not 'sale' of software	108
7.3-2 Distinction between copyright and copyrighted software	108
7.4 Excise duty and service tax on software	109
7.4-1 Position w.e.f. 21-12-2010	109
7.4-2 Renewal of license of packaged software	112
7.4-3 Summary of taxability of Information Technology Software	113
7.4-4 Position prior to 21-12-2010	114
7.4-5 Can service tax be imposed on IT software?	115

8

'SALE' UNDER CST ACT

8.1	Sale and deemed sale	116
8.1-1	Essentials of valid conventional sale	117
8.1-2	Sale must be a complete sale	117
8.1-3	Ascertained goods	119
8.1-4	Sale of illegal goods is taxable	119
8.1-5	Free supply is not 'sale'	120
8.1-6	Sale to oneself can also be 'sale', if capacities are different	121
8.1-7	Transaction between two companies during the 'effective date' of amalgamation and actual date of order of HC is 'stock transfer' and not 'sale'	121
8.1-8	'Sale' and 'purchase' are complimentary terms	121
8.2	Transfer of 'Property' essential in 'sale'	122
8.2-1	No sales tax on mere 'agreement to sale'	122
8.2-2	Place of registration of motor vehicle is place of sale	122
8.3	Transactions which are not 'sales'	122
8.3-1	Charge/mortgage/hypothecation/pledge is not 'sale'	123
8.3-2	Job Work/processing	123
8.3-3	Consignment/depot transfer/branch transfer	124
8.3-4	Barter or exchange or loan of goods is not a 'sale'	124
8.3-5	Loan transaction is not sale - Same goods need not be returned	126
8.3-6	Transfer of goods to partner on dissolution of partnership is not 'sale' of goods	126
8.3-7	Supply of material to contractor in case of works contract can be 'sale'	126
8.3-8	Giving replacement by charging repair charges	126
8.4	No tax if despatch is on account of contract of agency	127
8.4-1	Test whether sale is by Agent or by Principal	127
8.5	Sale under Sale of Goods Act	128
8.6	Sale as defined in Constitution	129

9

DEEMED SALES UNDER CST ACT

9.1	Transactions which are 'deemed sale'	132
9.1-1	Compulsory sale is taxable	132
9.1-2	Goods involved in works contract	133
9.2	Hire Purchase is 'Sale'	134
9.2-1	Hirer is not owner of goods	135

	PAGE
9.2-2 Goods must be returned to owner if buyer company is wound up	136
9.2-3 Owner can take possession in case of default	137
9.2-4 Distinction between hire purchase and instalment purchase	137
9.2-5 Distinction between hire purchase and hire purchase finance	137
9.2-6 There can be inter-state sale in hire purchase or lease	137
9.3 Transfer of right to use (like leasing and hire)	138
9.3-1 'Transfer' implies exclusive possession to transferee	139
9.3-2 Meaning of 'transfer of right' to use goods	140
9.3-3 Hire of goods when taxable	141
9.3-4 Right to exhibit or telecast of films and programmes	149
9.3-5 Right to use trade mark can be taxed	149
9.3-6 Rental charges for gas cylinders	150
9.3-7 Hiring of lockers is not taxable	151
9.3-8 Sale price in case of hire or leasing or hire purchase transaction	151
9.3-9 Situs of sale in case of transfer of right to use goods	152
9.3-10 Providing telephone apparatus and other appliances to subscriber is not 'transfer of right to use the goods'	152
9.3-11 Valuation in case of transfer of right to use goods	153
9.3-12 Input tax credit (set off) on purchases made for leasing	153
9.3-13 C form can be issued for purchase of goods for giving on lease as it is transfer of right to use goods and is a resale	153
9.4 Leasing	154
9.4-1 Financial and Operating Lease	154
9.4-2 Meaning of Financial lease	155
9.4-3 Distinction between hire purchase and lease	156
9.4-4 Distinction between hire and lease	156
9.4-5 Tax only on 'goods' and not on lease/hire of immovable property	157
9.4-6 Earlier case law in respect of lease in inter-state transaction	157
9.4-7 Lease transaction can be inter-state sale	158
9.4-8 No sales tax on sale and lease back	159
9.5 Sale to member of unincorporated association or body of persons	160
9.6 Sale of food articles	161
9.6-1 Sale in canteen to workmen is also taxable	163
9.6-2 Free meals to employees is not sale	164

10

GOODS INVOLVED IN WORKS CONTRACT

10.1	Works contract and deemed sale	165
10.1-1	What is works contract?	165
10.1-2	Sales tax (VAT) is on goods involved in works contract and not on works contract as such	167
10.1-3	Meaning of 'goods in other form'	167
10.1-4	No transfer of property in goods if material gets exhausted/evaporated in execution of works contract	168
10.1-5	Only one deemed sale and one taxable event even when work is done by sub-contractor	169
10.2	Distinction between contract of sale and a 'works contract'	170
10.2-1	Transfer of property should be during execution of works contract	170
10.2-2	Dominant intention need not be transfer of property	171
10.2-3	There is no sale when hospital uses some goods during operation	173
10.3	How to distinguish works contract from sale?	173
10.3-1	Main object should not be to transfer chattel as chattel	173
10.3-2	Intention of parties is to be seen	174
10.3-3	Person executing works contract never has property in goods as whole	175
10.3-4	Mode of payment does not determine whether it is a works contract	176
10.3-5	No standard test can be laid down	176
10.3-6	Main goods should belong to the buyer	176
10.3-7	Severable contract or divisible contract	177
10.3-8	Works contract if contract for construction is made with prospective buyer	178
10.3-9	Distinction between 'contract for sale of immovable property' and 'sale of immovable property'	182
10.3-10	If any payment is obtained from customer prior to obtaining completion certificate, it will be 'deemed service' and service tax is payable w.e.f. 1-7-2010	183
10.3-11	This amendment does not apply to works contract service	183
10.3-12	Effect of the amendment	183
10.3-13	Contract of skill & labour	184
10.3-14	Basic distinction between sale of goods and works contract	184
10.4	No 'actual sale' in case of works contract	186
10.4-1	Amendment to cover sales tax on goods in works contract	186
10.4-2	Indivisible contract artificially converted into sale contract	186
10.5	Illustrations of works contract	187

	PAGE
10.5-1 Building contract	187
10.5-2 Tailor and garment	188
10.5-3 Supply and fixation of rolling shutters	188
10.5-4 Retreading of old tyres	189
10.5-5 Photographic work	189
10.5-6 Giving Xerox copy	191
10.5-7 Supply of printing material as per requirement of buyer	192
10.5-8 Contract for supply designing, supplying, erection and commissioning	195
10.5-9 Supplying spare parts in repair contract or maintenance contract	195
10.5-10 Other illustrations of 'works contract'	196
10.5-11 Illustrations where transaction was held as 'sale' not 'works contract'	198
10.6 Job work and works contract	199
10.7 Contractor need not be owner of flat if he sells flat before construction	200
10.8 Value liable for Works Contract Tax	200
10.8-1 Tax can be only on value of material	201
10.8-2 Deductions permissible while calculating 'value' for purpose of tax	202
10.8-3 Composition scheme permitted	204
10.8-4 Rate can be different from other goods	205
10.8-5 Value of material supplied by buyer to be added to 'sale price'	205
10.8-6 Royalty payable cannot be included for purpose of works contract tax	206
10.8-7 Whether Vat is payable on service tax portion in case of works contract	206
10.9 Valuation rules to determine sale price of works contract	208
10.10 CST on immovable property in works contract	208
10.10-1 Works contract of movable property	209
10.10-2 Inter-State Works contract in case of immovable property	209
10.10-3 State cannot artificially treat Inter-State works contract as local sale	211
10.10-4 Judgments that there can be Inter-State Works Contract	212
10.11 Other aspects relating to works contract	213
10.11-1 Supply of material to contractor can be a sale	213
10.11-2 'C' form can be supplied/received for purchases/sales for works contract	215

CONTENTS

I-16

	PAGE
10.11-3 TDS on works contract	215
10.11-4 Taxability of BOT projects	217
10.11-5 Income Tax provisions	217
10.11-6 Service tax on works contracts	218

11

DEALER UNDER CST ACT

11.1	Person liable to pay CST	219
11.1-1	Dealer	219
11.2	Ancillary, incidental and casual business is also covered	220
11.3	Government as dealer	220
11.3-1	Government company or corporation is not 'Government'	221
11.3-2	Government 'dealer' only if it carries on business of selling, buying of goods etc.	222
11.3-3	Government can be dealer if specifically included in the definition of 'dealer'	223
11.3-4	Customs and excise department selling confiscated goods are dealers	223
11.3-5	Railways is dealer	223
11.3-6	Person selling through e-commerce website is not dealer	224
11.4	Agent as a 'Dealer'	224
11.4-1	Definition of 'dealer' includes Agent	225
11.4-2	Intermediaries are not to be registered	225
11.4-3	Transporters and C&F agents are not dealers	225
11.4-4	Distinction between contract of sale and contract of agency	226
11.4-5	Agent can be dealer if principal undisclosed	226
11.5	Club as a dealer	226
11.6	Other persons held as 'dealer'	228
11.6-1	State Road Transport Corporation is a dealer	228
11.6-2	Insurance company is a dealer	229
11.6-3	Pawnbroker as 'dealer'	229
11.6-4	Bank/NBFC can be dealer in respect of sale of pledged/hypothecated goods	229
11.6-5	Auctioneer is not a dealer	230
11.6-6	Hospital selling drugs to patients is dealer	231
11.6-7	Official liquidator of company is dealer	231
11.6-8	Agriculturist is not 'dealer'	231
11.7	Collection of tax only by registered dealer	231
11.7-1	Dealer liable even if he does not collect sales tax	232

12'BUSINESS' UNDER CST

12.1	Definition of 'Business'	233
12.1-1	Business	233
12.2	Main activity should be business	233
12.3	Sale of Business is not 'business'	237
12.4	Incidental Business can be taxed	237
12.4-1	Transactions held as incidental to business	238
12.4-2	Transactions held as not incidental to business	239
12.4-3	History behind expanded definition of 'business'	240
12.5	Person under CST Act	241

13STATE RELEVANT TO A DEALER

13.1	Meaning of 'Appropriate State'	242
13.1-1	Appropriate State	242
13.1-2	Place of Business	242
13.2	State authorised to collect tax	243
13.2-1	Liability in case of subsequent sale	243
13.2-2	State authorised to collect tax when chain of transfer of document is broken	244
13.3	Two State Governments cannot tax same transaction	245

14QUANTUM OF CST PAYABLE

14.1	Rate of Central Sales Tax	247
14.1-1	CST rates to various categories, as applicable upto 31-3-2007	250
14.1-2	State sales tax to be inclusive of additional tax/surcharge/turnover tax	251
14.2	Calculation of Sales Turnover	251
14.2-1	Turnover	251
14.2-2	Round off of CST payable	254
14.2-3	Prescribed period under CST	254
14.2-4	'Value' must have relation to 'sale of goods' at the time of sale - VAT cannot be imposed on basis of MRP	254
14.2-5	Service tax and VAT (sales tax) are mutually exclusive, Vat cannot be imposed on value of service	255
14.2-6	Effect of changes in sales tax rates after contract of sale on the 'price' of goods as agreed in the contract	256

CONTENTS

I-18

	PAGE
14.3 Aggregate Sale price	256
14.3-1 Terms of contract are important, how invoice is prepared is not relevant	257
14.3-2 Entire amount payable as consideration for sale can be taxed	257
14.3-3 Entire consideration of sale, even when price is statutorily fixed	258
14.4 Inclusions in sale price	258
14.4-1 Any sum charged for by dealer at or before delivery	258
14.4-2 Central Sales Tax	259
14.4-3 Taxes and duties on goods sold	259
14.4-4 Packing material and packing charges	261
14.4-5 Cost of freight	262
14.4-6 Subsidy paid to supplier when includible	263
14.4-7 Dharamda (Charity)	263
14.4-8 Other charges which are includible	263
14.5 Exclusions from sale price	265
14.5-1 Discounts	265
14.5-2 Freight, transport and other charges for delivery of goods	268
14.5-3 Subsidy paid by Government not part of turnover	272
14.5-4 Duty refunded on deemed exports is not includible	273
14.5-5 Export incentives to seller	273
14.5-6 Duty drawback on exports	273
14.5-7 Deposits for returnable containers	274
14.5-8 Transit Insurance	275
14.5-9 Cost of installation and commissioning	275
14.5-10 Valuation when value includes value of service	275
14.5-11 Free of cost material supplied by customer	276
14.5-12 Royalty paid for mining lease	276
14.5-13 Post delivery charges not connected with sale of goods not includible in 'sale price'	276
14.5-14 Handling charges of motor vehicle	277
14.5-15 Goods returned/rejected	277
14.5-16 Whether VAT is payable on service tax portion in case of works contract	278
14.6 'Sale price' in case of works contract	279
14.6-1 Whether VAT is payable on service tax portion in case of works contract	280

15GOODS ELIGIBLE FOR REGISTRATION BY DEALER

15.1	Goods at concessional rate	281
15.1-1	Goods which can be purchased at concessional rate	281
15.1-2	Meaning of 'for use'	281
15.2	Goods intended for resale	282
15.3	Goods for use in manufacture	282
15.3-1	New and identifiable product must emerge in manufacture	282
15.3-2	Goods for any process integral with ultimate production eligible	285
15.3-3	Items eligible/not eligible for concessional rate	286
15.3-4	Job work eligible - Goods need not be sold by the manufacturer himself	288
15.3-5	Dealer need not himself be the manufacturer, he can be trader	289
15.3-6	Goods need not be manufactured or re-sold in the same State	290
15.3-7	Goods can be manufactured outside the State and then brought in the State of purchase, under concessional rate of CST	290
15.3-8	Use for agricultural production not permitted	291
15.3-9	Items declared as eligible by Government circular	291
15.3-10	Illustrations in respect of eligible/not eligible goods	292
15.4	Goods for use in processing	293
15.4-1	What is a process	293
15.5	Goods for use in telecommunications network	296
15.6	Goods for use in mining	297
15.7	Goods for use in power generation/distribution	298
15.8	Packing material	298
15.9	Raw material purchased by newspapers eligible	299

16EXEMPTIONS FROM CST

16.1	Exemptions and exclusions from CST	300
16.2	Subsequent sales by transfer of documents	300
16.2-1	Conditions for exemption	301
16.2-2	Certificate required	302
16.2-3	Declarations in E-I and E-II forms	302
16.2-4	Contents of E-I declaration	303

CONTENTS

I-20

	PAGE
16.2-5 Contents of E-II declaration	303
16.2-6 Some provisions of C form applicable to E-I/E-II forms	304
16.2-7 Submission of both E-I/E-II forms from seller and 'C' form from buyer is mandatory	304
16.3 Lower rate if local sales tax rate is lower than 2%	305
16.3-1 Inter State Sales to unregistered dealer exempt, if sale within the State was 'generally exempt'	305
16.4 Exemption by notification	308
16.4-1 Competition among States	309
16.4-2 States have agreed to stop unhealthy competition	309
16.4-3 State Government cannot waive condition of submission of C form	309
16.4-4 Exemption can be for whole year even if notification issued in middle of year but what about increase in middle of the year	310
16.4-5 Sales tax may be payable on packing even if goods are exempt	311
16.4-6 Sale during Import/Export	314
16.5 Exemption from CST if sale to SEZ unit or SEZ developer	314
16.5-1 What is SEZ	314
16.5-2 Goods that can be obtained by SEZ without CST	315
16.5-3 SEZ unit has to submit 'T' form	316
16.6 Exemption to supplies to foreign missions/UN etc.	316
16.7 Constitutional validity of exemption provisions	317

17

SALE IN COURSE OF EXPORT

17.1 Constitutional background of export sale	318
17.1-1 Export sale and sale in the course of export	318
17.2 What is 'Sale in course of Export'	319
17.2-1 Purchase of aviation turbine fuel by Indian carriers and foreign aircrafts flying abroad	319
17.2-2 Sale should occasion the export	320
17.2-3 Goods should be destined to foreign country, though actual reaching of destination not necessary	323
17.2-4 Sale outside territorial waters but within Exclusive Economic Zone is export	323
17.2-5 Purchase by branch for transfer to other State for ultimate export is 'in course of export'	325
17.2-6 Goods must physically move out of India - mere payment in foreign exchange not sufficient	325

	PAGE
17.3 Sale in course of export by transfer of documents	326
17.4 Meaning of 'Crossing Customs Frontiers of India'	326
17.5 Exports with help of or through agents	327
17.5-1 Export through agents	327
17.6 Penultimate sale for export	328
17.6-1 Purchase prior to penultimate sale not exempt	330
17.6-2 Normal wastages allowed	330
17.6-3 This is not a 'deemed' export	331
17.6-4 Pre-existing arrangement essential	331
17.6-5 Same goods purchased should be exported though they need not be in same form for exemption under CST Act	332
17.6-6 Purchase of paddy and export of rice	335
17.6-7 Fitting bus body on chassis and selling bus	335
17.6-8 Purchase in auction can also be 'in course of export'	336
17.6-9 'Penultimate sale' is not a 'local sale' for purpose of purchase tax	336
17.7 Purchase of packing material for export permissible	337
17.8 Certificate in form H	338
17.8-1 H form mandatory	338
17.8-2 Contents of form H	339
17.8-3 Manufacturer has to prove actual exports ?	339

18

SALE IN THE COURSE OF IMPORT

18.1 Constitutional background of sale on imports	340
18.1-1 Direct Imports	340
18.1-2 Sale in duty free shops in international airports	340
18.2 Sale by Agents in India	341
18.2-1 Privity of contract between the ultimate buyer and exporter necessary	343
18.2-2 Import when there is no privity of contract	344
18.2-3 Sale need not precede import, movement under agreement to sale is sufficient	346
18.2-4 Not a Sale in course of import, if property passes in exclusive economic zone	346
18.3 Sale in the course of import by Transfer of Documents	346
18.3-1 Sale in the course of import for leasing	348
18.4 Sale of goods stored in customs bonded warehouse is 'sale during import'	348

CONTENTS

I-22

	PAGE
18.4-1 Meaning of 'crossing customs frontier'	349
18.4-2 Meaning of 'customs station' and 'customs area'	349
18.4-3 Meaning of 'clearance' under customs	350
18.4-4 Sale of goods when goods are in bonded warehouse is 'sale in the course of import'	351
18.4-5 What can be 'document of title' ?	352
18.4-6 Customs Duty paid by buyer when sale is by transfer of documents is not includible in sale price	352
18.5 Sale after import is a distinct sale	352

19

GOODS OF SPECIAL IMPORTANCE

19.1	Declared Goods	353
19.1-1	Constitutional background	353
19.1-2	Additional Excise in lieu of sales tax	354
19.1-3	State Government can impose sales tax on goods leviable to AED	354
19.2	Goods of special importance	354
19.2-1	Articles held as 'declared goods'	355
19.2-2	Articles held as not 'declared goods'	361
19.2-3	The item must be construed strictly when the words used are 'that is to say'	361
19.3	Restrictions on State taxation on declared goods	362
19.3-1	Tax on declared goods not to exceed 5%	362
19.3-2	Reimbursement of local tax if declared goods sold Inter-State	362
19.3-3	Goods must be sold in same form to obtain reimbursement	363
19.3-4	Special provisions about paddy and pulses	363
19.3-5	Purchase tax cannot be imposed on declared goods	365
19.3-6	Provisions relating to declared goods apply even if the declared goods used in works contract	365
19.4	Sales Tax rates applicable for sale of declared goods	365

20

PROCEDURES UNDER CST ACT

20.1	Source of Procedures under CST Act	367
20.1-1	State provisions apply for many procedures	367
20.1-2	Rules framed by Central Government	367

	PAGE
20.1-3 Rules by State Governments	368
20.1-4 Some Provisions of State Laws applicable to CST	370
20.1-5 Sales Tax Law of each State	372
20.1-6 Provisions of Central Act and Rules to prevail over State laws in CST matters	372
20.2 Registration under CST Act	373
20.2-1 Compulsory Registration under CST	373
20.2-2 Voluntary Registration	373
20.2-3 Application for registration	374
20.2-4 Security from dealer under CST Act	374
20.2-5 Other documents required at time of registration	375
20.2-6 Certificate of Registration under CST	376
20.2-7 Amendment of registration certificate	377
20.2-8 All items of purchase and sale must be included in Registration	378
20.2-9 Refusal of Registration under CST	381
20.2-10 Cancellation of CST Registration	381
20.3 Forms and declarations under CST	382
20.3-1 Declarations to be submitted dealer	382
20.3-2 When to submit the declarations	383
20.3-3 Who can sign the declarations	384
20.3-4 Declaration form can be submitted at appellate stage if sufficient cause shown	384
20.3-5 Re-assessment if declaration form submitted later and delay explained	386
20.3-6 Declaration form cannot be rejected for minor defects	386
20.3-7 STO should allow rectification of defects in declarations	387
20.3-8 Recovery of difference if buyer refuses to issue required declaration form	387
20.3-9 Refusal to issue of blank declaration forms not justified	387
20.3-10 Rule can be amended to provide for non-issue of blank declaration form in case of defaults	390
20.3-11 Declarations cannot be issued if goods are rejected	390
20.3-12 Issue of sales tax form is not acknowledgement of debt	390
20.3-13 Practical aspects of declaration form	390
20.3-14 Prescribed forms under CST	392
20.4 Declaration in form C	393
20.4-1 Authority to issue blank C form	393
20.4-2 Contents of C Form under CST	393
20.4-3 C Form is mandatory to avail concessional rate	394
20.4-4 Quarterly submission of 'C' certificate	394

CONTENTS

I-24

	PAGE
20.4-5 Original and Duplicate and Counterfoil copy	395
20.4-6 Procedure in case of Loss of C form	396
20.4-7 Selling dealer not liable for false declaration by buyer	397
20.4-8 C form should be issued after purchase with full particulars	398
20.4-9 Issue/receipt of C form against goods used in works contract	398
20.4-10 Declaration cannot be issued if goods are rejected	399
20.4-11 C form issued by one branch but goods used by another branch of the same owner not permissible?	400
20.4-12 C form can be issued for purchase of goods for giving on lease as it is transfer of right to use goods and is a resale	400
20.4-13 Submission of C form is not conclusive evidence	401
20.5 Certificate in D Form	401

21

APPEALS AND PENALTY UNDER CST ACT

21.1	Appeals under CST	403
21.1-1	Appeal if issue relates to inter state stock transfer or consignment of goods	404
21.1-2	Further appeal against order of highest appellate authority, in certain cases under CST	404
21.1-3	Formation of Appellate Authority	405
21.1-4	Matters appealable to the authority	406
21.1-5	Time limit for filing appeal	407
21.1-6	Fees for filing appeal	407
21.1-7	Department can file appeal against order of highest appellate authority	407
21.1-8	Procedure for hearing appeal by CST Appellate Authority	407
21.1-9	Stay by appellate authority	408
21.1-10	Transfer of pending proceedings with CST Appellate Authority as on 1-3-2006	408
21.1-11	Authority can order refund by one State Government only to the extent of CST payable	409
21.2	Offences under the CST Act	409
21.2-1	Offences punishable	409
21.2-2	Punishment by Court of law	410
21.2-3	Compounding of offences	410
21.2-4	Offences cognizable and bailable	411

	PAGE
21.2-5 Punishment for other offences	412
21.2-6 Mere possession of cash and undisclosed income not enough to sustain demand of sales tax, actual sale must be shown	412
21.3 Mens rea in the CST offences	412
21.3-1 Lenient view for technical lapses	416
21.4 No limitation for launching prosecution	417
21.5 Other provisions	417
21.5-1 Liability of company-in-liquidation	417
21.5-2 Liability of directors of private limited company in case of liquidation	417
21.5-3 Recovery of CST	418
21.5-4 Indemnity to Government Officers	419
21.6 Sales Tax Planning	419

22

STATE LEVEL VAT

22.1 Introduction	421
22.1-1 State-wise position of VAT	422
22.1-2 Compromised VAT	422
22.1-3 No model law for all States	423
22.2 Defects that had cropped up in sales tax system in India	423
22.2-1 Steps taken to stop the menace	424
22.2-2 AED (GSI) Act	424
22.3 Basic Concept of VAT	425
22.3-1 Meaning of 'cascading effect of tax'	425
22.3-2 Disadvantages of cascading effect of taxes	426
22.3-3 Disadvantages of single point tax	427
22.3-4 VAT avoids cascading effect of tax	427
22.3-5 Illustration of tax credit method to avoid cascading effect	427
22.3-6 Consumption types of 'VAT'	428
22.3-7 Nature of VAT/GST	428
22.3-8 Meaning of 'Value added'	429
22.3-9 Revenue Neutral Rate (RNR)	429
22.3-10 Advantage of VAT over conventional system of taxation	430
22.3-11 Advantages of State Level VAT	430
22.3-12 Deficiencies in present State VAT System	430

CONTENTS

I-26

	PAGE
22.4 Highlights of State Sales tax VAT	431
22.4-1 Tax rates	435
22.4-2 Concession for small dealers	436
22.4-3 Policy about turnover tax, surcharge, additional tax etc. imposed by State Governments	437
22.4-4 Non-availability of input credit in certain cases	438
22.4-5 Credit of duty on capital goods	440
22.4-6 Procedural provisions	441
22.4-7 Provisions in State VAT relating to CST	441
22.4-8 Provisions of assessment and audit	443
22.4-9 Other provisions of State VAT	444
22.4-10 Input Tax Credit even if selling dealer does not pay tax	445
22.4-11 Input Tax Credit even if selling dealer does not pay tax to Government	446
22.5 Record of Input Tax Credit	447
22.5-1 Records of purchases of Inputs	447
22.5-2 Quantity record of inputs	448
22.5-3 Record of credit notes received from supplier	448
22.5-4 Record of capital goods	448
22.5-5 Other records	448
22.5-6 Record of tax credit available	448
22.5-7 Record of output tax	449
22.5-8 Payment of tax and filing returns	449
22.6 Disadvantages and pitfalls in VAT	449
22.6-1 'Carousel fraud' in VAT	450
22.7 Accounting treatment of VAT	451

23

GST - IDEA WHOSE TIME HAS COME

23.1 Background of GST	453
23.1-1 Major defects in present structure of indirect taxes	453
23.1-2 GST is solution to get over the defects	454
23.2 Constitution Amendments made effective	455
23.2-1 Constitution of GST Council	456
23.2-2 Various Drafts have been released	456
23.2-3 Proposed GST law broadly based on present State Vat, service tax and excise provisions	456
23.2-4 Some major ugly provisions in GST Model law	457
23.3 What is Goods and Services Tax?	459
23.3-1 Broad definition of 'service'	459

	PAGE
23.3-2 Dual GST for supply of goods and services within State	459
23.3-3 IGST for inter-state transactions	460
23.3-4 GST is consumption based tax	460
23.3-5 Finance Cost will increase	460
23.3-6 Central Excise duty on petroleum and tobacco products	461
23.3-7 Sales tax on petroleum products and alcoholic liquor within State	461
23.3-8 Tax on entertainment only by Municipalities, panchayat, regional council and district council	461
23.4 Expected rates of GST	461
23.4-1 GST rates in other Countries	463
23.5 Transitional provisions	463
23.5-1 Transitory provisions relating to stock with traders on 'appointed day' (hopefully 1-7-2017)	464
23.6 GST Compensation Cess on goods and services	464
23.7 Abolition of other duties and taxes	465
23.7-1 Definition of 'deemed sale' to continue	465
23.7-2 Taxation powers of district council	466
23.7-3 Present Area based exemptions	466
23.8 Goods and Service Taxes Council	466
23.8-1 Binding nature of recommendations of GST Council	467
23.8-2 Resolution of disputes among Union and States	467
23.8-3 Powers of GST Council	467
23.9 Information Technology Network	468
23.10 Central Clearing Agency to adjust IGST credit	468
23.11 Compromised GST	469
23.12 IGST, concept of 'supply' instead of 'sale' and reduction of distinction between goods and services are game changers	469
23.12-1 Taxes will move with goods	469
23.12-2 Distribution network will be simpler	470
23.12-3 Ways of doing business will change	470
23.13 Worry that dealers all over India will try to reduce their inventory as on 30-6-2017	471
23.14 Conclusion	471

APPENDICES

Appendix 1	Central Sales Tax Act, 1956	475
------------	-----------------------------	-----

CONTENTS

I-28

	PAGE
Appendix 2 Central Sales Tax (Registration and Turnover) Rules, 1957	506
Appendix 3 Goods eligible for purchase at concessional rate under CST	540
SUBJECT INDEX	569