

Contents

	PAGE
About the Authors	I-5
Preface to Second Edition	I-7
Chapter-heads	I-9
Table of cases	I-47

CHAPTER 1

WARRANT OF SEARCH-RELEVANCE IN ASSESSMENT PROCEEDINGS

1.1	Introduction	1
1.2	Warrant of search	1
1.3	Warrant is person-specific and premises-specific	4
1.4	Search of premises of third party	4
1.5	Assessment of third party searched for limited purpose	5
1.6	Search warrant in joint names - Now permissible	5
1.7	Name in the warrant not sufficient - Actual search required	6
1.8	Signing of warrant does not mean initiation of search	6
1.9	Mere mention of name in panchnama does not amount to initiation of search	6
1.10	Warrant in joint names and initiation of assessment proceedings	7
1.11	Warrant in joint names - Units of assessment	7
1.12	Premises in joint occupation	7
1.13	Warrant in the name of member of AOP	8
1.14	Search of premises occupied by persons along with searched party - Effect	8
1.15	Warrant in one name and search in another's premises	8
1.16	Search of bank and initiation of proceeding u/s 153A against account holder	9
1.17	Execution of warrant on bank account and seizure from bank account, etc.	9
1.18	Importance of panchnama in initiating assessment proceedings	10
1.19	Description in panchnama and assessment proceedings	11

	PAGE
1.20 Warrant in joint names but no panchnama in all names	12
1.21 Name of person appearing in search warrant and panchnama but not in satisfaction note - Effect	12
1.22 Search on receipt of unverified information from another authority	12
1.23 C&AG's report as basis for authorisation	13
1.24 Whether legal and valid search not required for action u/s 153BD/153C?	13
1.25 Recording of satisfaction and search action should be proximate - No revival of old warrant	13
1.26 Valid search required for proceeding u/s 153A	14
1.27 Invalid search warrant - Effect on assessment	14
1.28 Service of search warrant not required	14
1.29 Hyper technicalities in issue of warrant - Court would not interfere	15
1.30 Communication of reasons leading to satisfaction	15
1.31 Survey converted into search - Validity of search warrant and consequential proceedings	16
1.32 Tax evasion petition & proceeding u/s 153A	18
1.33 Search in the premises of holding company - Effect on subsidiary	18
1.34 Initiation of proceeding u/s 153A when no search is conducted in assessee's premises	18
1.35 Illegal search - Causes and consequences	19

CHAPTER 2

SECTION 153A - AN OVERVIEW

2.1 Introduction	21
2.2 Block assessment and assessment u/s 153A	21
2.3 Search - Meaning of	23
2.4 Search initiated - Connotation	23
2.5 Undisclosed income	24
2.6 Non-obstante clause	24
2.7 Meaning of words 'pending' and 'abate'	25
2.8 What will abate and what will not abate?	26
2.9 Status of pending assessment in respect of earlier search	27
2.10 Processing of return - Whether amounts to abatement?	28
2.11 Scope of first two provisos u/s 153A(1)	28

	PAGE
2.12 Connotation of 'so far as may be'	29
2.13 'All other provisions of the Act shall apply' - Meaning of	29
2.14 Assess or reassess - Meaning	30

CHAPTER 3

INITIATION OF PROCEEDINGS U/S 153A - JURISDICTIONAL ISSUES

3.1 Introduction	32
3.2 Discovery of undisclosed income - Whether a pre-condition for issue of notice u/s 153A?	32
3.3 When to issue notice u/s 153A?	33
3.4 Notice u/s 153A for 10 assessment years	33
3.5 Central Government can exclude issuance of notice in certain cases	36
3.6 When to file returns in search cases?	36
3.7 Return for the year of search	37
3.8 Request for extension of time	38
3.9 Revised return	38
3.10 Requirement of filing return u/s 139(1) after initiation of search	39
3.11 Status of original returns after issue of notice u/s 153A	40
3.12 Issue of valid notice u/s 153A mandatory	40
3.13 Time limit for furnishing returns u/s 153A	40
3.14 Failure to furnish return u/s 153A	41
3.15 Delay in handing over search material - Effect	41
3.16 Sections 292B and 292BB	42
3.17 Section 147 and search assessments	42

CHAPTER 4

PROCEDURE OF ASSESSMENT U/S 153A

4.1 Introduction	46
4.2 Meaning of 'assessment'	46
4.3 Undisclosed income	46
4.4 Concept of dual assessment	47
4.5 Incriminating evidence	47
4.6 Whether provisions of section 139(9) apply?	48
4.7 Payment of self-assessment tax	49

	PAGE
4.8	Issue and service of notice u/s 143(2) 49
4.9	Issue of notice u/s 142(1) 51
4.10	Where return not filed in response to notice u/s 153A 52
4.11	Use of fresh evidence found in search when regular assessment completed and appeal pending 52
4.12	Appeal proceedings do not abate because of order u/s 153A 53
4.13	Issues considered and accepted in regular assessments - Can they be revisited in assessment u/s 153A? 53
4.14	Addition in regular assessment made prior to search 54
4.15	Estimated addition and assessment u/s 153A 55
4.16	Rejection of books of account - Addition u/s 69B 55
4.17	Would computation of total income u/s 153A include income disclosed and accepted earlier? 55
4.18	No parallel assessment proceeding during pendency of proceedings u/s 153A/153C 56
4.19	Incriminating evidence should be qua assessee and assessment year 56
4.20	Head of income for additional income declared u/s 132(4) 57
4.21	Computation of loss and carry forward of loss 57
4.22	Assessments made u/s 153A and revision u/s 263 60
4.23	Revival of proceeding on annulment 61
4.24	How to use information received from external source in assessment u/s 153A? 61
4.25	Approval of order u/s 153D 62
4.26	Non-quoting of DIN in notices, summons, order, etc. - Effect 63

CHAPTER 5

NEW CLAIM OF DEDUCTION IN PROCEEDINGS U/S 153A

5.1	Introduction 64
5.2	New claims - Various scenarios 64
5.3	Case of Sun Engineering Works 65
5.4	New claim of deduction u/s 153A 65
5.5	Claim of deduction under Chapter VIA for the first time in the return filed u/s 153A 67
5.6	Can a claim be preferred during appeal proceedings for the first time? 69

	PAGE
5.7	Additional claim of deduction in the return filed u/s 153A	70
5.8	Reassessment u/s 147 and assessment u/s 153A operate in different fields	71
5.9	Change of method of valuation of stock in return filed u/s 153A	71
5.10	New claim in the return u/s 153A - Disallowed	72
5.11	Two streams of assessment	72
5.12	Deduction u/s 80-IA already granted cannot be reviewed and withdrawn	73
5.13	Making new claim of deduction under Chapter VIA - Whether settled?	73

CHAPTER 6

USE OF INCRIMINATING EVIDENCE

6.1	Introduction	74
6.2	Scope and nature of incriminating evidence	74
6.3	A holistic view	76
6.4	Department's approach	76
6.5	Important decisions	77
6.6	Predominant view	86

CHAPTER 7

ASSESSMENT OF INCOME OF 'OTHER PERSON' - SECTION 153C

7.1	Introduction	87
7.2	Amendments to section 153C	87
7.3	Broad features of section 153C	89
7.4	Assessment years covered u/s 153C	91
7.5	Assessment years covered in case of 'other person'	91
7.6	When Assessing Officer of searched person and 'other person' are same - Reckoning of assessment years	92
7.7	Inference of undisclosed income from the books of searched party in proceedings u/s 153C	93
7.8	Incriminating evidence - Inference will not do	93
7.9	Where satisfaction in the case of searched party and other person identically worded?	94
7.10	Whether two satisfaction notes required?	94

	PAGE
7.11 Content of satisfaction note important, not form	95
7.12 Incriminating evidence required for invoking section 153C	95
7.13 'Belongs to', 'refers to' and 'relates to' - Connotation of	95
7.14 Belongingness of photocopies of documents	96
7.15 Belongingness of sale deed and photocopies	96
7.16 Belongingness of undated cheque	97
7.17 Effect of mention of name in seized paper	97
7.18 Satisfaction	97
7.19 Guidelines laid down in Ganpati Fincap Services (P.) Ltd. case	102
7.20 Can appraisal report be the basis for satisfaction?	103
7.21 Communication from Investigation Wing without handing over seized material not enough	103
7.22 When to record satisfaction?	103
7.23 Presumption u/s 132(4A) and u/s 292C and satisfaction	104
7.24 Board's Circular No. 24/2015 - Recording of satisfaction u/s 158BD/153C	104
7.25 Order of Settlement Commission - Finality of order - Subsequent reopening	105
7.26 Issue of notice in case of amalgamation	105
7.27 Writ against notice u/s 153C not first resort	106
7.28 Action u/s 147 in case of 'other person'	106
7.29 Prior approval before passing assessment order - Section 153D	106
7.30 Where foundation of initiating action u/s 158BC not sustainable?	107
7.31 Initiation of proceedings u/s 153C should follow proceedings u/s 153A	107
7.32 Can statement u/s 132(4) be the basis for initiating proceedings against third person?	107
7.33 Should assessment u/s 153C be confined to evidence in seized material?	108
7.34 Seizure of hard disk	108
7.35 Seizure of trial balance and balance sheet - Effect of	109
7.36 Initial admission and subsequent denial by searched party	109
7.37 No notice u/s 153A or u/s 153C	109
7.38 Whether issue of a second (fresh) notice u/s 158BD justified?	110

	PAGE
7.39 Can evidence found in survey in a connected case be utilised in search assessment?	110

CHAPTER 8

TIME LIMITS FOR COMPLETING SEARCH ASSESSMENTS - SECTION 153B

8.1 Introduction	112
8.2 Time limits for completion of search assessments	112
8.3 Time limits u/s 153B since 2004	112
8.4 Execution of authorisation	116
8.5 Exclusion of time under Explanation to section 153B	116
8.6 Service of assessment order	117
8.7 Last panchnama drawn - Limitation	117
8.8 Extension of time limits due to Covid-19	118

CHAPTER 9

APPLICATION AND RELEASE OF SEIZED ASSETS - SECTION 132B

9.1 Introduction	119
9.2 Scope of section 132B	119
9.3 Application of seized assets - Section 132B(1)	119
9.4 Release of deposits in disclosed bank accounts	121
9.5 Early release of explained assets	121
9.6 Release of surplus assets - Section 132B(3)	122
9.7 Payment of interest by revenue	122
9.8 Interest payable for post-assessment period	123
9.9 Interest on interest	124
9.10 Interest u/s 132B(4) and section 240	124
9.11 Interest for undue delay in releasing FD, IVP, KVP, etc.	124
9.12 Release of seized assets in other circumstances - Board's Instruction	124
9.13 Release of cash and jewellery - Some decisions	125
9.14 Release of pledged assets	125
9.15 Release of assets when search is held illegal	126
9.16 Production of succession certificate before release of seized assets	126
9.17 Payment of compensation for inordinate delay	126

CHAPTER 10SECTION 115BBE - AN ANALYSIS

10.1	Introduction	128
10.2	Head of income	128
10.3	Applicability of specified sections	129
10.4	Raison d'être for section 115BBE	130
10.5	Broad features of section 115BBE	131
10.6	Search cases and section 115BBE	134
10.7	Survey cases and section 115BBE	135
10.8	Where income falling under a specified section is accepted in scrutiny assessment?	135
10.9	Important issues on assessability of income falling under specified sections	136
10.10	When books of account rejected?	137
10.11	Credit entry in bank account	137
10.12	Impact of section 115BBE on presumptive taxation	137
10.13	Treatment of credits, etc., where books not maintained	138
10.14	Presumption u/s 132(4A) and u/s 292C	140
10.15	Peak credit	141
10.16	Cash credit offered as income to buy peace	141
10.17	Excess stock	142
10.18	Suppressed cash sales	142
10.19	Cross-examination of adverse witness	142
10.20	Burden of proof	142
10.21	Explanation filed by assessee	144
10.22	Burden of proof u/s 69	144
10.23	Burden of proof u/s 69B	144
10.24	Section 50C vis-à-vis sections 69, 69A and 69B	145
10.25	Cash deposits into bank account post-demonetization and PMGKY	145

CHAPTER 11SEIZURE OF JEWELLERY - BOARD'S INSTRUCTION AND OTHER ISSUES

11.1	Introduction	147
-------------	--------------	-----

	PAGE
11.2 Board's Instruction No. 1916 dt. 11-5-1994	147
11.3 Judicial precedents	148
11.4 Extended meaning of Instruction No. 1916	148
11.5 Mismatch in description of jewellery	149
11.6 Claim for giving credit to larger amount of jewellery	149
11.7 Possession of jewellery (stridhan) - Long married life	149
11.8 Instruction No. 1916 not applicable while computing undisclosed income	149
11.9 Burden of proof	150

CHAPTER 12

COMPUTATION OF UNDISCLOSED INCOME UNDER SECTIONS 153A & 153C - MISCELLANEOUS ISSUES

12.1 Introduction	151
12.2 Adoption of 'net worth method'	151
12.3 Calling for assets and liability statement u/s 142(1)	152
12.4 Application of section 40A(3)	152
12.5 Disallowance u/s 40(a)(ia)	153
12.6 Confessional statement - Section 68	154
12.7 Unexplained gift in concluded assessment year	154
12.8 No addition of gifts u/s 68 without incriminating evidence	155
12.9 Entries in kutchha books - Addition u/s 68	155
12.10 Section 132(4A) does not override section 68	155
12.11 Accommodation entry - Reopening valid	155
12.12 Share application money from non-existent parties - Addition u/s 68	156
12.13 Statement of third party - No addition on account of accommodation entry	156
12.14 All conditions of section 69 to be satisfied	156
12.15 Noting in the seized document without corroboration not enough for addition	157
12.16 Ownership of cash and section 69A	157
12.17 Discovery of cash in lockers - Delay in producing cash book - Effect	157
12.18 Statement of third party cannot be the basis for addition u/s 69A	158
12.19 Cash seized from bus - Addition u/s 69A	158

	PAGE
12.20 Section 110 of Evidence Act and section 69A	158
12.21 Whether confiscated gold assessed u/s 69A is business loss and is liable for set off?	159
12.22 Disclosure of jewellery in wealth tax return - Application of section 69A	159
12.23 Nature of additions under sections 69, 69A, 69B and 69C	159
12.24 No addition u/s 69B because seller declared higher price	160
12.25 Repeated confession of undisclosed income	160
12.26 Sweep of section 69C	161
12.27 Where source of expenditure proved	161
12.28 Where assessee cannot explain source of expenditure - Section 69C	161
12.29 Section 69C requires source of expenditure, not authenticity	161
12.30 Where source of bogus purchase available - No addition u/s 69C	162
12.31 No addition on the basis of MOU without corroboration	162
12.32 Income offered to buy peace - Taxability and penalty	162
12.33 Evidentiary value of statement u/s 132(4) - Caution needed	163
12.34 Use of evidence for computing undisclosed income	164
12.35 Documentary evidence versus oral evidence	164
12.36 Oral Evidence	165
12.37 Circumstantial evidence	165
12.38 Use of partly relevant, irrelevant and neutral evidence	165
12.39 Evidentiary value of report of registered valuer	165
12.40 Burden of proof - General principles	167
12.41 Burden of proof in income tax	168
12.42 Burden of proof - Initial onus - Emerging trend	169
12.43 Agreed assessment - Estoppel	171
12.44 Issue of show-cause notice	172
12.45 Discovery of hard disk and proceedings u/s 153C	173
12.46 Agricultural income	173
12.47 Where interest cannot be charged for delay in filing return?	173
12.48 Benami Act - Implications	173
12.49 Interpretation of statutes - Some important principles	174

CHAPTER 13STATUTORY PRESUMPTIONS - SECTION 132(4A)
& SECTION 292C

13.1	Introduction	178
13.2	Possession/control/ownership	178
13.3	'May presume' - Meaning	179
13.4	Scope of presumption - Apex Court's view	179
13.5	No addition solely on the basis of presumption	180
13.6	Presumption limited to accepting genuineness of document but does not extend to interpretation	180
13.7	Documents seized from third party premises	181
13.8	Presumption u/s 132(4A) is a factual presumption and not a mandate	182
13.9	Failure to rebut presumption u/s 132(4A) - Effect of	182
13.10	No presumption u/s 132(4A) on the basis of statement	182
13.11	Admission of fact and presumption u/s 132(4A)	182
13.12	Ingredients of section 69 to be satisfied - Presumption u/s 132(4A) alone will not suffice	183
13.13	Notings on loose papers - Presumption u/s 132(4A)	183
13.14	Presumption not to apply to entries in dumb document	183
13.15	Unsigned MOU - Whether presumption can be raised to make addition?	184
13.16	Recital in photocopy - Presumption needs to be rebutted at assessment stage	184
13.17	Application of presumption to requisition u/s 132A	184
13.18	Combined evaluation of section 132(4A) and statement u/s 132(4)/131 necessary	184
13.19	Whether loose paper a document or books of account to give rise to presumption u/s 132(4A)?	185
13.20	Whether handwriting in document sufficient to create presumption?	185
13.21	Cash found during search - Presumption	186
13.22	Reopening of assessment u/s 147 and presumption	186
13.23	No prosecution based merely on presumption u/s 132(4A)	186
13.24	Presumption available to diary seized in search	187

	PAGE
13.25 Entries in seized documents cannot be partly accepted and partly rejected	187
13.26 No addition on the basis of presumption alone	187
13.27 Presumption u/s 292C cannot be applied mechanically	187
13.28 Presumption u/s 292C - Sections 68 and 69 of IT Act	188
13.29 Discharge of burden u/s 292C	188
13.30 Claim of expenditure u/s 37 - Presumption u/s 292C	189
13.31 Whether section 292C for the benefit of department?	189
13.32 Proceeding u/s 153C and presumption u/s 292C	189

CHAPTER 14

NOTINGS ON LOOSE PAPERS - EVIDENTIARY VALUE

14.1 Introduction	190
14.2 Books of account and document - Meaning of	190
14.3 Entries in regular books and notings in diaries and on loose papers - Distinction	191
14.4 Pendrive data - Whether equal to entries in books of account?	192
14.5 Contents of documents and hearsay evidence	192
14.6 Signature in document not enough to prove its contents	192
14.7 Whether handwriting in document proves contents of document?	192
14.8 Expressions 'account', 'books of account', 'business' and 'regularly kept' and section 34 of Evidence Act	193
14.9 Document should be speaking in all respects	195
14.10 Notings on loose slips as interpreted in the case of Dr. Kamla Prasad Singh	196
14.11 Unsigned and undated document	197
14.12 A transaction has its own circle	197
14.13 Whether compiled loose papers constitute books of account?	197
14.14 Speaking document	197
14.15 Notings on loose paper disowned by both parties - No addition u/s 68	198
14.16 Correlation of notings with regular books	198
14.17 Activity noted on loose slips of paper should not be imaginary	198
14.18 Coded notings	198

	PAGE
14.19 Mere possession of document not enough	199
14.20 Burden of proof	200
14.21 No addition on suspicion - Corroboration and cross-examination necessary	200
14.22 Case of Ms. Katrina Rosemary Turcotte	200
14.23 Seizure of loose paper from premises of third party	202
14.24 Mere admission would not lead to addition	202
14.25 Estimation of sales on the basis of notings on loose papers	202
14.26 Allegation of planting loose paper	202
14.27 Notings on loose paper to be considered as a whole	203
14.28 Loose paper notings - Disallowance u/s 40A(3)	203
14.29 Presumption u/s 292C - Addition on the basis of notings on loose papers should not lead to a fantastic result	204
14.30 No Reopening permissible on the basis of notings on loose paper	204
14.31 Secret profit - Notings on loose slips of paper	205
14.32 Selective use of notings not permissible	205
14.33 Dumb Document - Addition under sections 68, 69, 69A, 69B, 69C & 69D	205
14.34 Notings on loose slips - Addition u/s 69A	206
14.35 No presumption of year of transaction	206
14.36 Notings on loose paper and penalty	206

CHAPTER 15

ADMISSION

15.1 Introduction	208
15.2 Underlying principles on admission	208
15.3 Submission and admission by counsel	210
15.4 Admission and estoppel	211
15.5 Scope of estoppel	211
15.6 Estoppel and income-tax proceedings - Expanding horizon	211
15.7 Whether taxpayer bound by his promise?	212
15.8 Can estoppel be the basis of assessment?	212
15.9 Estoppel and penalty	213
15.10 Conditional admission	213

	PAGE
15.11 Admissions and retractions need to be considered as a whole	214
15.12 Statement recorded at odd hours	214
15.13 Coercion and confusion distinguished	215
15.14 Evidentiary value of admission in return of income	216
15.15 Admission under erroneous impression of law	216
15.16 Mere inclusion of income in the return cannot make it taxable	217
15.17 Doctrine of approbate and reprobate	217
15.18 Admission under wrong advice of lawyer	217
15.19 Cape Brandy Principle and admissions	217
15.20 Admission is good evidence	218
15.21 When is admission vulnerable?	221
15.22 Admission - A few landmark rulings	227
15.23 Board's Letter on admissions	231

CHAPTER 16

RETRACTION

16.1 Introduction	232
16.2 When is retraction valid?	232
16.3 When is retraction not valid?	233
16.4 Retracted statement cannot be sole basis of addition	234
16.5 Need to evaluate reasons for retraction	234
16.6 Whether legal representative can retract?	234
16.7 Retracted statement not to be discarded	234
16.8 Retraction to be backed by cogent evidence	235
16.9 Repeated admission - Effect of	235
16.10 Effect of delayed retraction	236
16.11 Delayed retraction - Case of Manmohan Singh Vig v. DCIT	237
16.12 Initial admission versus retraction	239
16.13 Retracted confession is still an admission	240
16.14 Retraction citing compulsion or coercion	240
16.15 Confusion as ground for retraction	242

	PAGE
16.16 Supreme Court on burden of proof in cases of admission and retraction	242
16.17 Retraction of factual statement	243
16.18 Inconsistencies in admission and retraction	243
16.19 Retraction valid	243

CHAPTER 17

EXAMINATION AND CROSS-EXAMINATION OF WITNESSES

17.1 Introduction	244
17.2 Aspects of cross-examination	244
17.3 Role of cross-examiner	245
17.4 Cross-examination essential before use of adverse evidence	246
17.5 Supreme Court on cross-examination	246
17.6 Failure to afford opportunity of cross-examination - Impact on assessment	248
17.7 Effect of not availing opportunity of cross-examination	250
17.8 Supply of copy of statement before cross-examination	251
17.9 Affording reasonable time for cross-examination	251
17.10 Department cannot cut short process of evidence-taking	251
17.11 Cases where cross-examination not necessary	252
17.12 Cross-examination of hostile witness	252
17.13 Discrediting oral evidence	253
17.14 Evidentiary value of unfinished testimony	253
17.15 Cross-examination not necessary for secondary evidence	253
17.16 Formal cross-examination not always a requirement	254
17.17 Third party evidence and cross-examination	256
17.18 Third party evidence without cross-examination not valid for reopening assessment	258
17.19 Cross-examination of experts	258
17.20 Information supplied by disgruntled accountant	258
17.21 Preponderance of probability and cross-examination	259
17.22 Self-serving statements by interested witnesses and cross-examination	259

CHAPTER 18PRINCIPLES OF NATURAL JUSTICE

18.1	Introduction	260
18.2	Principles of natural justice	260
18.3	Justice should not only be done but seen to be done	260
18.4	Element of bias	261
18.5	One cannot be a judge in one's own cause	261
18.6	Need for show cause notice	262
18.7	Adequate opportunity of being heard	263
18.8	Adjournments	263
18.9	Opportunity not a rigid doctrine	263
18.10	Need for speaking order	264
18.11	Subsequent explanations cannot sustain a decision	266
18.12	Principles of natural justice do not supplant law but supplement it	266
18.13	Natural justice operates in areas not excluded by legislation	266
18.14	Principles of natural justice apply even where not expressly provided	267
18.15	Whether order passed in violation of principles of natural justice void or voidable?	267
18.16	Violation of principles of natural justice - Effect on jurisdiction	269
18.17	Technicalities and irregularities do not occasion failure of justice	269
18.18	Principles of natural justice are not immutable and rigid	270
18.19	Silence of the statute not to be construed as exclusion of opportunity	271
18.20	Principles of natural justice and cross-examination	271
18.21	Application of rules of natural justice in income-tax proceedings	272

CHAPTER 19CONCEALMENT PENALTIES - THEN AND NOW
AT A GLANCE

◆	Concealment Penalties - Then and now at a Glance	273
---	--	-----

CHAPTER 20PENALTY UNDER SECTION 271AAA

20.1	Introduction	276
20.2	Penalty u/s 271AAA - Statutory framework	276

	PAGE
20.3 Undisclosed income of specified previous year	276
20.4 Scope of undisclosed income	277
20.5 False expenses - Meaning of	278
20.6 False expenses and claim of deduction under Chapter VIA	278
20.7 Objective of search and undisclosed income	278
20.8 Disallowance on the basis of incriminating evidence - Effect of	279
20.9 Implication of declaration u/s 132(4)	279
20.10 'Specifies the manner in which the income admitted was earned' - Meaning	280
20.11 Substantiating the manner of deriving undisclosed income	282
20.12 Manner of deriving income and cash credits	284
20.13 Pays tax and interest thereon	284
20.14 Substantial compliance to stipulations u/s 271AAA	285
20.15 Specified previous years	286
20.16 Nexus between undisclosed income and material found - Application of section 271(1)(c)	286
20.17 No incriminating evidence - No penalty	287
20.18 Estimated income and disallowances	287
20.19 Bogus purchases - Accommodation entries	287
20.20 Stock difference	288
20.21 Statutory disallowances and interpretational difference	288
20.22 Accommodation entries	288
20.23 Human probability theory and penalty	290
20.24 Extrapolation of sales and penalty	290
20.25 Income offered to buy peace - Decision in MAK Data case	291
20.26 Conditional surrender of income	292
20.27 Notings on loose slips of paper	293
20.28 Peak credit	293
20.29 Apportioned income	293
20.30 Increase in share capital	294
20.31 Mere admission of undisclosed income without incriminating evidence	294
20.32 Offer of income under 'Other sources' after search	295

	PAGE
20.33 Can penalty u/s 271(1)(c) be imposed on income of specified previous year?	295
20.34 Recording of reasons u/s 271AAA(2) is a requirement	297
20.35 Recovery of incriminating material from premises of third party - Levy of penalty	297
20.36 Penalty u/s 271AAA vis-a-vis under section 271(1)(c)	298

CHAPTER 21

PENALTY UNDER SECTION 271AAB

21.1 Introduction	299
21.2 Rate of penalty u/s 271AAB(1)/271AAB(1A)	299
21.3 Rates of penalty u/s 271AAB and u/s 271AAB(1A)	300
21.4 Graded penalty	300
21.5 Section 271AAB - Scope	302
21.6 No penalty u/s 270A or u/s 271(1)(c)	306
21.7 Calling for return u/s 153A and payment of tax by specified date	306
21.8 Sections 271AAA, 271AAB(1), 271AAB(1A) and section 153C	308
21.9 Issue of notice u/s 271AAB through corrigendum - Effect	308
21.10 Penalty u/s 271AAB where loss is reduced	309
21.11 Application of mind required for levy of penalty	309
21.12 Settlement Commission - A good option	309

CHAPTER 22

PENALTY UNDER SECTION 271AAC

22.1 Introduction	310
22.2 Scope and application of section 271AAC	310
22.3 Tax u/s 115BBE and penalty thereon u/s 271AAB(1A) and u/s 271AAC - At a glance	311

CHAPTER 23

PENALTY IN SEARCH CASES - EXPLANATION 5A TO SECTION 271(1)(c)

23.1 Introduction	313
23.2 Scope of Explanation 5A to section 271(1)(c)	313
23.3 Application of Explanation 5A	314
23.4 Requisition of books of account u/s 132A and Explanation 5A	315

	PAGE
23.5 Application of Explanation 5A to 'other person'	315
23.6 Significance of 'due date' in Explanation 5A	315
23.7 Withdrawal of claim of depreciation in statement u/s 132(4) and Explanation 5A	316
23.8 Unexplained expenditure and Explanation 5A	316
23.9 Disclosure of income under 'Other sources' and Explanation 5A	317
23.10 Voluntary admission of income for non-specified years and Explanation 5A	317
23.11 Where no incriminating evidence is found - Explanation 5A	317
23.12 Vague interpretation of Explanation 5A - Not permissible	318
23.13 Survey converted into search - Applicability of Explanation 5A	318
23.14 Satisfaction recorded under one section but penalty imposed under another section	318
23.15 Concealment of income, deemed concealment under Explanation 5A and undisclosed income for specified previous years	319
23.16 Whether non-initiation of penalty proceeding can be subject matter of section 263?	319
23.17 Unaccounted cash received from property transaction	320
23.18 Due date of filing return extended - Applicability of penalty under Explanation 5A	321

CHAPTER 24

PENALTY FOR UNDER-REPORTING & MISREPORTING OF INCOME - SECTION 270A

24.1 Introduction	322
24.2 Applicability of section 270A	322
24.3 Section 270A - Situations of under-reporting	322
24.4 Quantum of under-reported income	323
24.5 Explanation 2 to section 271(1)(c) and sub-sections (4) and (5) of section 270A	325
24.6 Exclusions from under-reported income	329
24.7 Rates of penalty	333
24.8 Under-reported income in consequence of misreporting	333
24.9 Cases of misrepresentation and suppression of facts	334
24.10 Computing tax on under-reported income	337
24.11 Quantification of tax on under-reported income as per Board's Circular No. 3/2017 [F.No.370142/20/2016-TPL]	338

	PAGE
24.12 Import of sub-section (11) of section 270A	339
24.13 Whether imposition of penalty u/s 270A automatic?	339
24.14 'May', 'shall' and 'direct' - Connotation of	340
24.15 Can penalty proceedings be initiated after completion of assessment proceedings?	340
24.16 Whether recording of satisfaction not necessary?	341
24.17 General principles on levy of penalty	341
24.18 Meaning of some important terms in the matter of penalty	346

CHAPTER 25

RECORDING OF SATISFACTION IN PENALTY PROCEEDINGS

25.1 Introduction	348
25.2 Section 271(1B) - Amendment by Finance Act, 2008	348
25.3 Post-amendment scenario and judicial precedents	348
25.4 Direction - Meaning	351
25.5 Direction to initiate penalty must refer to particular limb of the section	353

CHAPTER 26

IMMUNITY FROM PENALTY & PROSECUTION - SECTION 270AA

26.1 Introduction	355
26.2 Conditions to be satisfied	355
26.3 Order of acceptance or rejection of application for immunity	355
26.4 No revision u/s 263 or appeal after acceptance of application u/s 270AA	356
26.5 No appeal against order of rejection	356
26.6 Can a rectification petition u/s 154 be filed?	356
26.7 Revival of appeal against order of assessment or reassessment	357
26.8 Limitation of time for passing order u/s 270AA(4)	357
26.9 Board's instruction on the scope of section 270AA	357

CHAPTER 27

PROSECUTION UNDER SECTION 276C

27.1 Introduction	358
--------------------------	-----

	PAGE
27.2 Scope of section 276C	358
27.3 Explanation to section 276C	359
27.4 Prosecution prior to completion of assessment	360
27.5 Cases of under-reporting and misreporting of income u/s 270A	360
27.6 Some key expressions in the context of prosecution	361
27.7 Sanction u/s 279	363
27.8 Prosecution for an offence punishable under two enactments	364
27.9 Place of trial	364
27.10 Complaint must be filed within reasonable time	364
27.11 Pendency of statutory remedy - Effect on prosecution	364
27.12 Expectation of success in appeal no impediment for prosecution u/s 276C	364
27.13 No bar to continue proceedings in criminal courts during pendency of proceedings under Income-tax Act	365
27.14 Allegation of criminal conspiracy	365
27.15 No prosecution under Income-tax Act on the basis of statement before another authority	365
27.16 Admission and retraction	365
27.17 Return filed voluntarily and penalty deleted by Tribunal - Prosecution proceedings liable to be quashed	366
27.18 Imposition of penalty not a requirement for prosecution u/s 276C(2)	366
27.19 Prosecution proceedings not to be quashed in case of fabrication of evidence	366
27.20 Stay of prosecution proceeding under the criminal law during pendency of proceeding under the IT Act	366
27.21 Case of bogus claim of refund - Section 276C	367
27.22 Cases of protracted litigation	367
27.23 No prosecution based on statutory presumption u/s 132(4A)	367
27.24 When books of account are exclusively maintained by an employee	367
27.25 Stock discrepancy	368
27.26 Distinct charges against the accused and a common order	368
27.27 Payment of penalty without disputing signature in the return amounts to admission about correctness of signature	368
27.28 Wilful attempt to evade payment of tax	369
27.29 No opportunity need be given before sanctioning prosecution	369

	PAGE
27.30 Right to speedy trial	370
27.31 Presumption as to culpable mental state - Section 278E	370
27.32 Final outcome of penalty proceedings under the IT Act and criminal prosecution	374
27.33 Compounding	376
27.34 Board's guidelines for compounding offences	376

CHAPTER 28

EXTRAPOLATION OF SALES

28.1 Introduction	378
28.2 Prerequisites of extrapolation	378
28.3 Theory of extrapolation	379
28.4 When can extrapolation be extended to earlier years?	380
28.5 Presumption of suppression should not be wild	382
28.6 One instance of suppressed sale cannot lead to estimation for the whole period	382
28.7 Extrapolation cannot be the basis for action u/s 147	382
28.8 Extrapolation of sales and concealment penalty	383
28.9 Extrapolation in assessment u/s 153A	383
28.10 Where extrapolation not approved?	384
28.11 Income arrived at on extrapolation and matching assets	385

CHAPTER 29

SUPPRESSION OF SALES - APPLICATION OF SECTION 145

29.1 Introduction	387
29.2 Concept of income	387
29.3 How to compute income in case of suppressed sales?	387
29.4 Best judgment assessment	388
29.5 Guess work and estimation of turnover	389
29.6 Wednesbury Principle	389
29.7 Concept of matching assets	390
29.8 Can entire suppressed turnover be income?	390
29.9 Whether unexplained investment in purchases can be taxed u/s 69?	391
29.10 Stock found short	392

	PAGE
29.11 Need for cogent material for estimation of profit	392
29.12 Set off of intangible addition against unaccounted stock of another year	392
29.13 Difference in RG register and daily rough production register - Presumption of suppression	392
29.14 Addition of suppressed sales on assumption	393
29.15 Rejection of books of account and suppression of yield on the basis of comparable case	393
29.16 No addition on the basis of information from another authority	393
29.17 Whether estimation be strictly based on evidence?	393
29.18 Whether substitution of rate of estimate permissible in appellate court?	394
29.19 No addition on account of unexplained investment when profit on suppressed sale estimated	394
29.20 A single instance of suppressed sale cannot lead to estimation	394
29.21 Sale accepted by Excise Department - Effect	394
29.22 Book result cannot be rejected routinely	395
29.23 Suppressed sales, estimated income and concealment penalty	395
29.24 Crediting estimated income in the books - Levy of penalty	396
29.25 Some decisions on Explanation 2 to section 271(1)(c)	397
29.26 Reopening of assessment on the basis of information from another department	398

CHAPTER 30

BOGUS PURCHASES

30.1 Introduction	400
30.2 Bogus purchases - A complex scenario	400
30.3 Burden of proof	402
30.4 Details which assessee has to furnish	402
30.5 Examination and cross-examination of selling dealer	404
30.6 Plea of grey market purchases - Estimate of gross profit	404
30.7 Where addition of entire amount of bogus purchase sustained	406
30.8 Genuineness of purchase not proved	406
30.9 Whether netting of purchases and sales permissible?	407
30.10 Jugglery of book entries - Effect	407

	PAGE
30.11 Shortage of stock	407
30.12 Payment by account payee cheque	407
30.13 Preponderance of probabilities	408
30.14 Tribunal cannot ignore evidence collected	408
30.15 Statement of suppliers not enough to make addition	408
30.16 Sales not disputed - Purchases from grey market	408
30.17 Failure to produce suppliers	409
30.18 Mere denial by selling dealer/Non-payment of sales tax cannot lead to addition	409
30.19 Non-production of selling dealers - Evaluation of evidence	409
30.20 Immediate withdrawal by cash from bank	410
30.21 When supporting evidence produced	411
30.22 Seller declared as hawala dealer - Effect	411
30.23 Bogus purchases - Admission during survey	412
30.24 Reopening of assessment - Justified or not?	412
30.25 Reopening justified	413
30.26 Revision on ground of bogus purchases	414
30.27 Bogus purchase and concealment penalty	415

CHAPTER 31

STOCK VERIFICATION - DIFFERENT ASPECTS

31.1 Introduction	417
31.2 Recasting trading account - Adoption of gross profit rate	417
31.3 Need for methodical stock-taking - Sampling and eye estimate	418
31.4 Participation by employees in stock-taking cannot rescue addition when process is not correct	418
31.5 Sampling method of stock-taking not correct	419
31.6 Production of stock register at the time of search	419
31.7 Non-maintenance of stock register	419
31.8 Admission of stock in sworn statement during search	420
31.9 Consistent method cannot be ignored	420
31.10 Undisclosed assets and undisclosed stock	420
31.11 Method of valuation can be changed for valid reasons	421
31.12 Shortage of stock cannot be treated as income	421

	PAGE
31.13 Jewellery business - Remade jewellery should be excluded from stock	421
31.14 Valuation as per registered valuer vis-à-vis purchase bill	422
31.15 Stock difference assessable as business income	422
31.16 Application of section 69B	422
31.17 Excess stock - No separate addition u/s 69B when books are rejected	422
31.18 Survey by Inspector - Stock valuation	423
31.19 No addition where sales tax authorities accepted books of account	423
31.20 When stock of discontinued business is transferred	423
31.21 Burden of proof - Excess stock	424
31.22 No rejection of books for non-maintenance of stock register	424
31.23 Admission of excess stock not a ground for rejecting books	424
31.24 Applicability of section 69C - Excess stock	424

CHAPTER 32

PEAK THEORY

32.1 Introduction	425
32.2 Why peak theory?	425
32.3 Peak theory - When and how to apply?	426
32.4 Entries in bank account	429
32.5 Burden of proof	429
32.6 Where unexplained cash credits utilised in books	429
32.7 Addition of extra profit vis-à-vis peak credit	430
32.8 Squared up accounts and peak credit	430
32.9 Systematic cycling of funds - Requirement for peak theory	430
32.10 No benefit of peak to an entry provider	431
32.11 Working out peak - Claim of benefit of funds from other sources - Burden of proof	431
32.12 Concealment penalty on surrender of peak credit as income	432
32.13 Peak credit and prosecution	433
32.14 Assessee to make clean breast of all transaction to get the benefit of peak credit	433

CHAPTER 33TELESCOPING

33.1	Introduction	434
33.2	Nature of intangible addition	434
33.3	Telescoping - When can be applied?	434
33.4	Estimated addition and cash credit	435
33.5	Telescoping - Not a general proposition of law	435
33.6	Concept of double taxation as explained by Supreme Court	436
33.7	Opening balance and cash credit	436
33.8	Nexus between intangible addition and cash credit	437
33.9	Claim of telescoping for the first time before Tribunal	437
33.10	Telescoping against investment	437
33.11	Secret profit and undisclosed asset	438
33.12	Telescoping - Not a universal proposition	438
33.13	No telescoping of income of one against investment by another	439
33.14	Telescoping and penalty	439
33.15	Telescoping the negative balance in the books justified	439

CHAPTER 34ON-MONEY TRANSACTIONS

34.1	Introduction	440
34.2	'Best evidence rule' under Evidence Act with regard to recital in sale deed	440
34.3	Addition u/s 69B - Initial burden	441
34.4	Some important judgments on property transactions	441
34.5	Addition u/s 69B possible in the absence of direct evidence	443
34.6	Voluntary admission of payment of on-money - Burden of proof	443
34.7	Corroboration necessary	444
34.8	Third party admission cannot lead to addition	445
34.9	Payment of on-money within special knowledge of buyer	446
34.10	Statement of vendor - Payment of on-money - Common knowledge theory - Judicial notice	446
34.11	Addition on the basis of mere statement/admission/DVO's report	447
34.12	Reopening of assessment and understatement of consideration	447

	PAGE
34.13 DVO's report - Addition u/s 69B	447
34.14 Only speaking document can lead to addition	448
34.15 Agreement price - Whether conclusive?	448
34.16 Unsigned and undated agreement of sale	449
34.17 Plea of 'dumb document' may not always help	449
34.18 No addition on the basis of market value	449
34.19 Addition u/s 69B on the basis of photocopy of document	449
34.20 Whether on-money in entirety can be treated as income of builder?	450
34.21 Burden of proof	450
34.22 Receipt of on-money - No addition on the basis of statement of seller	450
34.23 When a property is held benami?	450
34.24 On-money received on sale of agricultural land	451
34.25 Stamp duty value - Addition u/s 69B	451
34.26 Addition of on-money and unexplained expenditure	451
34.27 Cross-examination	451

CHAPTER 35

SHARE APPLICATION MONEY AND SECTION 68

35.1 Introduction	452
35.2 Burden of proof	452
35.3 Discharging of onus	453
35.4 Satisfactory explanation and no explanation	453
35.5 Cases in favour of revenue	454
35.6 Cases in favour of the assessee	463
35.7 Statement of entry provider - Need for cross-examination	464
35.8 Inadequate enquiry - Effect of	465
35.9 Share application money - Addition in the hands of shareholder	466
35.10 Reopening of assessment	466
35.11 Evaluation of evidence - Some important principles	474

CHAPTER 36

PENNY STOCK TRANSACTIONS

36.1 Introduction	477
36.2 Modus operandi	477

	PAGE
36.3	Cases in support of revenue	478
36.4	Cases where assessee's claim accepted	483
36.5	Non-production of broker	487
36.6	Purchases cannot be bogus if sales are genuine	487
36.7	Can gain on penny stocks be taxed u/s 68	488
36.8	Reopening of assessment	488
36.9	Whither penny stocks?	489

CHAPTER 37

HUMAN PROBABILITY THEORY

37.1	Introduction	490
37.2	Human probability theory - When and how applied?	490
37.3	Scope of circumstantial evidence in tax proceedings	490
37.4	Circumstantial evidence and burden of proof	491
37.5	Leading cases	492
37.6	Human probability theory cannot always be applied to derive inference	497
37.7	Booking of loss	497
37.8	Receipt of advances	498
37.9	Preponderance of probabilities	498
37.10	Can assessee invoke theory of human probability?	499

CHAPTER 38

REAL INCOME THEORY

38.1	Introduction	500
38.2	Accrual and real income	500
38.3	Decisions on real income theory	501
38.4	Stage at which real income concept can be advanced	503

CHAPTER 39

MUTUALITY PRINCIPLE

39.1	Introduction	504
39.2	Essence of mutuality	504
39.3	Attributes of mutuality	504

	PAGE
39.4	A perspective on mutuality principle	505
39.5	Mutual and non-mutual transactions	507
39.6	Amounts collected by clubs from members	508
39.7	Where incidental activity yields revenue	508
39.8	Source of deposit - Implications	509
39.9	Taxability of interest earned from bank	510
39.10	Income from house property - Principle of mutuality	510
39.11	Co-operative society v. Co-operative bank	511
39.12	Disposal of assets on dissolution	512
39.13	Non-occupancy charges, transfer charges, etc. - Whether taxable?	512

CHAPTER 40

PIERCING CORPORATE VEIL

40.1	Introduction	514
40.2	Veil of incorporation - Approach of Indian courts	514
40.3	When can corporate veil be lifted?	515
40.4	Onus	517

CHAPTER 41

PROSPECTIVE AND RETROSPECTIVE LEGISLATION

41.1	Introduction	518
41.2	Essence of prospective and retrospective legislation	518
41.3	Scope of substantive and procedural law	520
41.4	Application of law in appeal	522
41.5	Tax statutes	522
41.6	Penal provisions	523
41.7	Retrospectivity - Decision in CIT v. Vatika Township Private Ltd.	523
41.8	Legislative action to overcome adverse judgment	525
41.9	Amendment cannot revive time-barred assessment	525
41.10	Beneficial & oppressive circulars	525
41.11	Clarificatory amendment	526
41.12	Curative amendments	527
41.13	Benami transaction	527

CHAPTER 42DOCTRINE OF PROMISSORY ESTOPPEL

42.1	Introduction	528
42.2	Rationale behind the doctrine	528
42.3	Indian law on promissory estoppel	529
42.4	Limitations to the doctrine	529
42.5	Landmark decisions	530
42.6	Applicability of the doctrine to tax matters	531

CHAPTER 43DOCTRINE OF LEGITIMATE EXPECTATION

43.1	Introduction	535
43.2	Nature of doctrine of legitimate expectation	535
43.3	Attributes of doctrine of legitimate expectation	536
43.4	Doctrine of legitimate expectation in action	537

CHAPTER 44LEGAL FICTION

44.1	Introduction	539
44.2	Meaning and purpose of deeming provision	539
44.3	Function of deeming provision	540
44.4	Presumption created by deeming rules	540
44.5	Presumption in law and factual presumption	540
44.6	Fiction should be carried to logical end	540
44.7	Fiction should operate within its legitimate field	541
44.8	What follows from a deemed fact is also deemed?	541
44.9	All presumptions not absolute	542
44.10	Interpretation of deeming provisions	542

CHAPTER 45ASSUMPTION OF JURISDICTION

45.1	Introduction	543
45.2	Jurisdiction - General	543
45.3	Waiver of mandatory provision not permissible	545

	PAGE
45.4	Service of notice and assumption of jurisdiction - Sections 292B and 292BB	545
45.5	Participation in proceedings would not give rise to waiver	548
45.6	Nullity and irregularity	548
45.7	Lack of jurisdiction and irregular exercise of jurisdiction	549
45.8	Supervening irregularity	550
45.9	Nullity confirmed in appeal is still a nullity	550

CHAPTER 46

LEGAL PRECEDENT

46.1	Introduction	551
46.2	Ratio decidendi , Obiter dicta , Sub silentio , Per incuriam , Res judicata - Explained	551
46.3	Nature of precedent and rule of Stare decisis	553
46.4	Binding force of decisions of Supreme Court	554
46.5	Binding force of decision of jurisdictional High Court	555
46.6	Decisions of other High Courts - Precedent value	556
46.7	Decisions of Tribunals - Precedent value	557
46.8	Special Leave Petition before the Supreme Court	559

CHAPTER 47

DIGITAL EVIDENCE

47.1	Introduction	561
47.2	Footage of digital evidence	561
47.3	Provisions on digital evidence in various statutes	561
47.4	Primary and secondary evidence - Scope	564
47.5	Sections 65A and 65B of the Evidence Act	564
47.6	Landmark decisions on electronic evidence	565
47.7	Where primary evidence need not be produced	566
47.8	Admissibility of Tape recorded conversation	567
47.9	Hard Disk	567
47.10	Pen drive, CD	567
47.11	Hash value	568
47.12	E-mail	569
47.13	Mobile phones	569

	PAGE
47.14 Examiner of electronic record	570
47.15 Case of S.R. Batliboi	570
47.16 Can electronic device be seized?	571
47.17 Impounding of computer during survey	571
47.18 Service of notice by WhatsApp/e-mail	572
47.19 Challenges faced by investigating agencies	572

APPENDICES

Appendix 1 Proforma of panchnama	577
Appendix 2 CBDT Circular No. 14 (XL-35), dated 11-4-1955	580
Appendix 3 CBDT Circular No. 17 (XL-36), dated 28-6-1965 - Fee for inspection of records and for copies of documents	581
Appendix 4 Instruction [F. No. 286/2/2003-IT (Inv. II)], dated 10-3-2003- General confession of additional income during search and survey operations	582
Appendix 5 Letter [F.No. 286/98/2013-IT (Inv.II)], dated 18-12-2014 on forced admissions	583
Appendix 6 Board's Instruction No.1916, dated 11-5-1994 on seizure of jewellery	584
Appendix 7 Board's Instruction on release of seized assets [F. No. 286/6/2008-IT (Inv.II)], dated 21-1-2009	585
Appendix 8 Circular No. 10/2012 [F. No. 282/22/2012-IT (Inv.)], dated 31-12-2012 - Assessment of preceding years in search cases during election period. (Relevant part)	587
Appendix 9 Recording of satisfaction u/s 158BD/153C - Board's Circular No. 24/2015 [F.No. 279/Misc./140/2015/ITJ], dated 31-12-2015	588
Appendix 10 Instruction No. 17/2015 [F.No. 225/290/2015-ITA-II], dated 9-11-2015 Constitution of Local Committees to deal with taxpayers grievances from High-pitched Scrutiny Assessment	589
Appendix 11 Guidelines for compounding of offences Letter F. No. 285/35/2013 IT (Inv.)/108, dated 23-12-2014	591
Appendix 12 Guidelines for compounding of offences - Letter F. No. 285/08/2014 - IT (Inv. V) dated 14-6-2019	599
SUBJECT INDEX	619