

AS INTRODUCED IN LOK SABHA
ON 1ST JUNE, 1998

Bill No. 51 of 1998

THE FINANCE (No. 2) BILL, 1998

to give effect to the financial proposals of the Central Government for the financial year 1998-99.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Forty-ninth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

CHAPTER I

PRELIMINARY

1. (1) This Act may be called the Finance (No. 2) Act, 1998.

(2) Save as otherwise provided in this Act, sections 2 to 101 (except section 53) shall be deemed to have come into force on the 1st day of April, 1998.

CHAPTER II

RATES OF INCOME-TAX

2. (1) Subject to the provisions of sub-sections (2) and (3), for the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1998, income-tax shall be charged at the rates specified in Part I of the First Schedule. Income-tax.

(2) In the cases to which Paragraph A of Part I of the First Schedule applies, where the assessee has, in the previous year, any net agricultural income exceeding six hundred rupees, in addition to total income, and the total income exceeds forty thousand rupees, then,—

(a) the net agricultural income shall be taken into account, in the manner provided in clause (b) [that is to say, as if the net agricultural income were comprised in the total income after the first forty thousand rupees of the total income but without being liable to tax], only for the purpose of charging income-tax in respect of the total income; and

(b) the income-tax chargeable shall be calculated as follows:—

(i) the total income and the net agricultural income shall be aggregated and the amount of income-tax shall be determined in respect of the aggregate income at the rates specified in the said Paragraph A, as if such aggregate income were the total income;

(ii) the net agricultural income shall be increased by a sum of forty thousand rupees, and the amount of income-tax shall be determined in respect of the net agricultural income as so increased at the rates specified in the said Paragraph A, as if the net agricultural income as so increased were the total income;

(iii) the amount of income-tax determined in accordance with sub-clause (i) shall be reduced by the amount of income-tax determined in accordance with sub-clause (ii) and the sum so arrived at shall be the income-tax in respect of the total income.

(3) In cases to which the provisions of Chapter XII or Chapter XII-A or sub-section (1A) of section 161 or section 164 or section 164A or section 167B of the Income-tax Act, 1961 (hereinafter referred to as the Income-tax Act) apply, the tax chargeable shall be determined as provided in that Chapter or that section, and with reference to the rates imposed by sub-section (1) or the rates as specified in that Chapter or section, as the case may be.

(4) In cases in which tax has to be charged and paid under section 115-O of the Income-tax Act, the tax shall be charged and paid at the rate specified in that section.

(5) In cases in which tax has to be deducted under sections 193,194, 194A, 194B, 194BB, 194D and 195 of the Income-tax Act at the rates in force, the deduction shall be made at the rates specified in Part II of the First Schedule.

(6) In cases in which tax has to be deducted under sections 194C, 194G, 194-I, 194J and 194K of the Income-tax Act, the deduction shall be made at the rates specified in those sections.

(7) In cases in which tax has to be collected under section 206C or under the proviso to section 194B of the Income-tax Act, the collection shall be made at the rates specified in that section or at the rate specified in Part II of the First Schedule, as the case may be.

(8) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (9), in cases in which income-tax has to be calculated under the first proviso to sub-section (5) of section 132 of the Income-tax Act or charged under sub-section (4) of section 172 or sub-section (2) of section 174 or section 175 or sub-section (2) of section 176 of the said Act or deducted under section 192 of the said Act from income chargeable under the head "Salaries" or in which the "advance tax" payable under Chapter XVII-C of the said Act has to be computed, at the rate or rates in force, such income-tax or, as the case may be, "advance tax" shall be so calculated, charged, deducted or computed at the rate or rates specified in Part III of the First Schedule:

Provided that in cases to which the provisions of Chapter XII or Chapter XII-A or sub-section (1A) of section 161 or section 164 or section 164A or section 167B of the Income-tax Act apply, "advance tax" shall be computed with reference to the rates imposed by this sub-section or the rates as specified in that Chapter or section, as the case may be.

(9) In the cases to which Paragraph A of Part III of the First Schedule applies, where the assessee has, in the previous year or, if by virtue of any provision of the Income-tax Act, income-tax is to be charged in respect of the income of a period other than the previous year, in such other period, any net agricultural income exceeding six hundred rupees, in addition to total income and the total income exceeds fifty thousand rupees, then, in calculating income-tax under the first proviso to sub-section (5) of section 132 of the Income-tax Act or in charging income-tax under sub-section (2) of section 174 or section 175 or sub-section (2) of section 176 of the said Act or in computing the "advance tax" payable under Chapter XVII-C of the said Act, at the rate or rates in force,—

(a) the net agricultural income shall be taken into account, in the manner provided in clause (b) [that is to say, as if the net agricultural income were comprised in the total income after the first fifty thousand rupees of the total income but without being liable to tax], only for the purpose of calculating, charging or computing such income-tax or, as the case may be, "advance tax" in respect of the total income; and

(b) such income-tax or, as the case may be, "advance tax" shall be so calculated, charged or computed as follows:—

(i) the total income and the net agricultural income shall be aggregated and the amount of income-tax or "advance tax" shall be determined in respect of the aggregate income at the rates specified in the said Paragraph A as if such aggregate income were the total income;

(ii) the net agricultural income shall be increased by a sum of fifty thousand rupees, and the amount of income-tax or "advance tax" shall be determined in respect of the net agricultural income as so increased at the rates specified in the said Paragraph A as if the net agricultural income as so increased were the total income;

(iii) the amount of income-tax or "advance tax" determined in accordance with sub-clause (i) shall be reduced by the amount of income-tax or, as the case may be,

"advance tax" determined in accordance with sub-clause (ii) and the sum so arrived at shall be the income-tax or, as the case may be, "advance tax" in respect of the total income.

(10) For the purposes of this section and the First Schedule,—

(a) "domestic company" means an Indian company, or any other company which, in respect of its income liable to income-tax under the Income-tax Act for the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1998, has made the prescribed arrangements for the declaration and payment within India of the dividends (including dividends on preference shares) payable out of such income;

(b) "insurance commission" means any remuneration or reward, whether by way of commission or otherwise, for soliciting or procuring insurance business (including business relating to the continuance, renewal or revival of policies of insurance);

(c) "net agricultural income", in relation to a person, means the total amount of agricultural income, from whatever source derived, of that person computed in accordance with the rules contained in Part IV of the First Schedule;

(d) all other words and expressions used in this section or in the First Schedule but not defined in this sub-section and defined in the Income-tax Act shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in that Act.

(i) in clause (23C), after sub-clause (iiia), the following sub-clause shall be inserted, namely:—

“(iiia) any university or other educational institution, hospital or medical institution established by a Central, State or Provincial Act or by a local authority or any society registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860 or any other corresponding law for the time being in force and which is wholly or substantially financed by the Government; or”;

21 of 1860.

(j) for clause (23G), the following clause shall be substituted, namely:—

“(23G) any income by way of interest of an infrastructure capital fund or an infrastructure capital company from primary investments made by way of long-term finance in any enterprise wholly engaged in the business of developing, maintaining and operating any infrastructure facility and which has been approved by the Central Government on an application made by it, in accordance with the rules made in this behalf and which satisfies the prescribed conditions.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this clause,—

(a) “infrastructure capital company” means such company established to make investments by way of long-term finance in an enterprise wholly engaged in the business of developing, maintaining and operating infrastructure facility;

(b) “infrastructure capital fund” means such fund operating under a trust deed, registered under the provisions of the Registration Act, 1908, established to raise monies by the trustees for investment by way of long-term finance in an enterprise wholly engaged in the business of developing, maintaining and operating infrastructure facility;

16 of 1908.

(c) “infrastructure facility” means—

(ii) a project for generation or generation and distribution of electricity or any other form of power where such project starts generating power on or after the 1st day of April, 1993;

(iii) a project for providing telecommunication services on or after the 1st day of April, 1995;

(d) “long-term finance” shall have the meaning assigned to it in clause (viii) of sub-section (1) of section 36;”;

(k) in clause (26), after the words, brackets and figures "North-Eastern Areas (Reorganisation) Act, 1971", the words "or in the Ladakh region of the State of Jammu and Kashmir" shall be inserted.

8. In section 16 of the Income-tax Act, for clause (j), the following clause shall be substituted with effect from the 1st day of April, 1999, namely:— Amendment of section 16.

"(j) in the case of an assessee whose income from salary, before allowing a deduction under this clause,—

(a) does not exceed one lakh rupees, a deduction of a sum equal to thirty-three and one-third per cent. of the salary or twenty-five thousand rupees, whichever is less;

(b) exceeds one lakh rupees but does not exceed five lakh rupees, a deduction of a sum of twenty thousand rupees.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this clause, where salary is due from, or paid or allowed by, more than one employer, the deduction under this clause shall be computed with reference to the aggregate salary due, paid or allowed to the assessee and shall in no case exceed the amount specified under this clause;".

9. In section 17 of the Income-tax Act, in clause (2), in the proviso, in clause (v), for the words "ten thousand rupees", the words "fifteen thousand rupees" shall be substituted with effect from the 1st day of April, 1999. Amendment of section 17.

10. In section 24 of the Income-tax Act, with effect from the 1st day of April, 1999,— Amendment of section 24.

(a) in sub-section (1), in clause (i), for the word "one-fifth", the word "one-fourth" shall be substituted;

(b) in the proviso to sub-section (2), for the word "fifteen", the word "thirty" shall be substituted.

11. In section 32 of the Income-tax Act, in sub-section (1),— Amendment of section 32.

(a) for the opening portion beginning with the words "In respect of depreciation of buildings, machinery, plant or furniture owned, wholly or partly," and ending with the words "and figures "section 34, be allowed—", the following shall be substituted with effect from the 1st day of April, 1999, namely:—

"In respect of depreciation of—

(i) buildings, machinery, plant or furniture, being tangible assets;

(ii) know-how, patents, copyrights, trade marks, licences, franchises or any other business or commercial rights of similar nature, being intangible assets, owned, wholly or partly, by the assessee and used for the purposes of the business or profession, the following deductions shall be allowed—";

(b) in the fourth proviso, for the words "plant or furniture", the words "plant or furniture, being tangible asset or know-how, patents, copyrights, trade marks, licences, franchises or any other business or commercial rights of similar nature, being intangible assets" shall be substituted with effect from the 1st day of April, 1999;

(c) after Explanation 2, the following Explanations shall be inserted with effect from the 1st day of April, 1999, namely:—

Explanation 3.—For the purposes of this sub-section, the expressions "assets" and "block of assets" shall mean—

(a) tangible assets, being buildings, machinery, plant or furniture;

(b) intangible assets, being know-how, patents, copyrights, trade marks, licences, franchises or any other business or commercial rights of similar nature.

Explanation 4.—For the purposes of this sub-section, the expression "know-how" means any industrial information or technique likely to assist in the manufacture or processing of goods or in the working of a mine, oil-well or other sources of mineral deposits (including searching for discovery or testing of deposits for the winning of access thereto);;

(d) after clause (ii), the following clause shall be inserted and shall be deemed to have been inserted with effect from the 1st day of April, 1998, namely:—

(iii) in the case of any building, machinery, plant or furniture in respect of which depreciation is claimed under clause (i) and which is sold, discarded, demolished or destroyed in the previous year (other than the previous year in which it is first brought into use), the amount by which the moneys payable in respect of such building, machinery, plant or furniture, together with the amount of scrap value, if any, fall short of the written down value thereof:

Provided that such deficiency is actually written off in the books of the assessee.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this clause,—

(1) “moneys payable” in respect of any building, machinery, plant or furniture includes—

(a) any insurance, salvage or compensation moneys payable in respect thereof;

(b) where the building, machinery, plant or furniture is sold, the price for which it is sold,

so, however, that where the actual cost of a motor car is, in accordance with the proviso to clause (1) of section 43, taken to be twenty-five thousand rupees, the moneys payable in respect of such motor car shall be taken to be a sum which bears to the amount for which the motor car is sold or, as the case may be, the amount of any insurance, salvage or compensation moneys payable in respect thereof (including the amount of scrap value, if any) the same proportion as the amount of twenty-five thousand rupees bears to the actual cost of the motor car to the assessee as it would have been computed before applying the said proviso;

(2) “sold” includes a transfer by way of exchange or a compulsory acquisition under any law for the time being in force but does not include a transfer, in a scheme of amalgamation, of any asset by the amalgamating company to the amalgamated company where the amalgamated company is an Indian company.;

(e) in the fourth proviso, after the words “referred to in”, the words, brackets and figures “clause (xiii) and clause (xiv) of section 47 or” shall be inserted with effect from the 1st day of April, 1999.

Insertion of new section
33ABA.

Site
Restoration
Fund.

12. After section 33AB of the Income-tax Act, the following section shall be inserted with effect from the 1st day of April, 1999, namely:—

‘33ABA. (1) Where an assessee is carrying on business consisting of the prospecting for, or extraction or production of, petroleum or natural gas or both in India and in relation to which the Central Government has entered into an agreement with such assessee for such business, has before the end of the previous year—

(a) deposited with the State Bank of India any amount or amounts in an account (hereafter in this section referred to as the special account) maintained by the assessee with that Bank in accordance with, and for the purposes specified in, a scheme (hereafter in this section referred to as the scheme) approved in this behalf by the Government of India in the Ministry of Petroleum and Natural Gas; or

(b) deposited any amount in an account (hereafter in this section referred to as the Site Restoration Account) opened by the assessee in accordance with, and for the purposes specified in, a scheme framed by the Ministry referred to in clause (a) (hereafter in this section referred to as the deposit scheme), the assessee shall, subject to the provisions of this section, be allowed a deduction (such deduction being allowed before the loss, if any, brought forward from earlier years is set off under section 72) of—

(i) a sum equal to the amount or the aggregate of the amounts so deposited; or

(ii) a sum equal to twenty per cent. of the profits of such business (computed under the head “Profits and gains of business or profession” before making any deduction under this section), whichever is less:

Provided that where such assessee is a firm, or any association of persons or any body of individuals, the deduction under this section shall not be allowed in the computation of the income of any partner or, as the case may be, any member of such firm, association of persons or body of individuals:

Provided further that where any deduction, in respect of any amount deposited in the special account, or in the Site Restoration Account, has been allowed under this sub-section in any previous year, no deduction shall be allowed in respect of such amount in any other previous year.

(2) The deduction under sub-section (1) shall not be admissible unless the accounts of such business of the assessee for the previous year relevant to the assessment year for which the deduction is claimed have been audited by an accountant as defined in the Explanation below sub-section (2) of section 288 and the assessee furnishes, along with his return of income, the report of such audit in the prescribed form duly signed and verified by such accountant:

Provided that in a case where the assessee is required by or under any other law to get his accounts audited, it shall be sufficient compliance with the provisions of this sub-section if such assessee gets the accounts of such business audited under such law and furnishes the report of the audit as required under such other law and a further report in the form prescribed under this sub-section.

(3) Any amount standing to the credit of the assessee in the special account or the Site Restoration Account shall not be allowed to be withdrawn except for the purposes specified in the scheme or, as the case may be, in the deposit scheme or in the circumstances specified below:—

- (a) closure of business;
- (b) death of an assessee;
- (c) partition of a Hindu undivided family;
- (d) dissolution of a firm;
- (e) liquidation of a company.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (3), no deduction under sub-section (1) shall be allowed in respect of any amount utilised for the purchase of—

- (a) any machinery or plant to be installed in any office premises or residential accommodation, including any accommodation in the nature of a guest-house;
- (b) any office appliances (not being computers);
- (c) any machinery or plant, the whole of the actual cost of which is allowed as a deduction (whether by way of depreciation or otherwise) in computing the income chargeable under the head "Profits and gains of business or profession" of any one previous year;
- (d) any new machinery or plant to be installed in an industrial undertaking for the purposes of business of construction, manufacture or production of any article or thing specified in the list in the Eleventh Schedule.

(5) Where any amount, standing to the credit of the assessee in the special account or in the Site Restoration Account, is withdrawn during any previous year by the assessee in the circumstance specified in clause (a) or clause (d) of sub-section (3), the whole of such amount shall be deemed to be the profits and gains of business or profession of that previous year and shall accordingly be chargeable to income-tax as the income of that previous year, as if the business had not closed or, as the case may be, the firm had not been dissolved.

(6) Where any amount standing to the credit of the assessee in the special account or in the Site Restoration Account is utilised by the assessee for the purposes of any expenditure in connection with such business in accordance with the scheme or the deposit scheme, such expenditure shall not be allowed in computing the income chargeable under the head "Profits and gains of business or profession".

(7) Where any amount, standing to the credit of the assessee in the special account or in the Site Restoration Account, which is released during any previous year by the State Bank of India or which is withdrawn by the assessee from the Site Restoration Account for being utilised by the assessee for the purposes of such business in accordance with the scheme or the deposit scheme is not so utilised, either wholly or in part, within that previous year, the whole of such amount or, as the case may be, part thereof which is not so utilised shall be deemed to be profits and gains of business and accordingly chargeable to income-tax as the income of that previous year:

Provided that this sub-section shall not apply in a case where such amount is released during any previous year at the closure of the account in circumstances specified in clauses (b), (c) and (e) of sub-section (3).

(8) Where any asset acquired in accordance with the scheme or the deposit scheme is sold or otherwise transferred in any previous year by the assessee to any person at any time before the expiry of eight years from the end of the previous year in which it was acquired, such part of the cost of such asset as is relatable to the deduction allowed under sub-section (1) shall be deemed to be the profits and gains of business or profession of the previous year in which the asset is sold or otherwise transferred and shall accordingly be chargeable to income-tax as the income of that previous year:

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall apply—

(i) where the asset is sold or otherwise transferred by the assessee to Government, a local authority, a corporation established by or under a Central, State or Provincial Act or a Government company as defined in section 617 of the Companies Act, 1956; or

(ii) where the sale or transfer of the asset is made in connection with the succession of a firm by a company in the business or profession carried on by the firm as a result of which the firm sells or otherwise transfers to the company any asset and the scheme or the deposit scheme continues to apply to the company in the manner applicable to the firm.

Explanation.—The provisions of clause (ii) of the proviso shall apply only where—

(i) all the properties of the firm relating to the business or profession immediately before the succession become the properties of the company;

(ii) all the liabilities of the firm relating to the business or profession immediately before the succession become the liabilities of the company; and

(iii) all the shareholders of the company were partners of the firm immediately before the succession.

(9) The Central Government may, if it considers necessary or expedient so to do, by notification in the Official Gazette, direct that the deduction allowable under this section shall not be allowed after such date as may be specified therein.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section,—

(a) “State Bank of India” means the State Bank of India constituted under the State Bank of India Act, 1955;

23 of 1955.

(b) the expression “amount standing to the credit of the assessee in the special account or the Site Restoration Account” includes interest accrued to such accounts.’

Amendment of section 35.

13. In section 35 of the Income-tax Act, sub-section (2AB) shall be omitted with effect from the 1st day of April, 1999.

Amendment of section 35A.

14. In section 35A of the Income-tax Act, in sub-section (1), after the words, figures and letters “after the 28th day of February, 1966”, the words, figures and letters “but before the 1st day of April, 1998” shall be inserted with effect from the 1st day of April, 1999.

Amendment of section 35AB.

15. In section 35AB of the Income-tax Act, in sub-section (1), for the words “in any previous year”, the words, letters and figures “in any previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on or before the 1st day of April, 1998” shall be substituted with effect from the 1st day of April, 1999.

Amendment of section 35D.

16. In section 35D of the Income-tax Act, with effect from the 1st day of April, 1999,—

(a) in sub-section (1), the following proviso shall be inserted, namely:—

‘Provided that where an assessee incurs after the 31st day of March, 1998, any expenditure specified in sub-section (2), the provisions of this sub-section shall have effect as if for the words “an amount equal to one-tenth of such expenditure for each of the ten successive previous years”, the words “an amount equal to one-fifth of such expenditure for each of the five successive previous years” had been substituted.’;

(b) in sub-section (3), before the Explanation, the following proviso shall be inserted, namely:—

Amendment of section 37.

17. In section 37 of the Income-tax Act, after sub-section (1), the following Explanation shall be inserted and shall be deemed to have been inserted with effect from the 1st day of April, 1962, namely:—

Amendment of section 41.

18. In section 41 of the Income-tax Act, after sub-section (1), the following sub-section shall be inserted and shall be deemed to have been inserted with effect from the 1st day of April, 1998, namely:—

“(2) Where any building, machinery, plant or furniture,—

(a) which is owned by the assessee;

(b) in respect of which depreciation is claimed under clause (i) of sub-section (1) of section 32; and

(c) which was or has been used for the purposes of business, is sold, discarded, demolished or destroyed and the moneys payable in respect of such building, machinery, plant or furniture, as the case may be, together with the amount of scrap value, if any, exceeds the written down value, so much of the excess as does not exceed the difference between the actual cost and the written down value shall be chargeable to income-tax as income of the business of the previous year in which the moneys payable for the building, machinery, plant or furniture became due.

Explanation.—Where the moneys payable in respect of the building, machinery, plant or furniture referred to in this sub-section become due in a previous year in which the business for the purpose of which the building, machinery, plant or furniture was being used is no longer in existence, the provision of this sub-section shall apply as if the business is in existence in that previous year.”.

19. Section 42 of the Income-tax Act shall be re-numbered as sub-section (1) thereof and after sub-section (1) as so re-numbered, the following sub-section shall be inserted with effect from the 1st day of April, 1999, namely:— Amendment of section 42.

“(2) Where the business of the assessee consisting of the prospecting for or extraction or production of petroleum and natural gas is transferred wholly or partly or any interest in such business is transferred in accordance with the agreement referred to in sub-section (1), subject to the provisions of the said agreement and where the proceeds of the transfer (so far as they consist of capital sums)—

(a) are less than the expenditure incurred remaining unallowed, a deduction equal to such expenditure remaining unallowed, as reduced by the proceeds of transfer, shall be allowed in respect of the previous year in which such business or interest, as the case may be, is transferred;

(b) exceed the amount of the expenditure incurred remaining unallowed, so much of the excess as does not exceed the difference between the expenditure incurred in connection with the business or to obtain interest therein and the amount of such expenditure remaining unallowed, shall be chargeable to income-tax as profits and gains of the business in the previous year in which the business or interest therein, whether wholly or partly, had been transferred:

Provided that in a case where the provisions of this clause do not apply, the deduction to be allowed for expenditure incurred remaining unallowed shall be arrived at by subtracting the proceeds of transfer (so far as they consist of capital sums) from the expenditure remaining unallowed.

Explanation.—Where the business or interest in such business is transferred in a previous year in which such business carried on by the assessee is no longer in existence, the provisions of this clause shall apply as if the business is in existence in that previous year;

(c) are not less than the amount of the expenditure incurred remaining unallowed, no deduction for such expenditure shall be allowed in respect of the previous year in which the business or interest in such business is transferred or in respect of any subsequent year or years:

Provided that in a scheme of amalgamation, the amalgamating company sells or otherwise transfers the business to the amalgamated company (being an Indian company), the provisions of this sub-section—

(i) shall not apply in the case of the amalgamating company; and

(ii) shall, as far as may be, apply to the amalgamated company as they would have applied to the amalgamating company if the latter had not transferred the business or interest in the business.”.

20. In section 43 of the Income-tax Act, in clause (1),— Amendment of section 43.

(a) after Explanation 8, the following Explanation shall be inserted and shall be deemed to have been inserted with effect from the 1st day of April, 1994, namely:—

“Explanation 9.—For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that where an asset is or has been acquired on or after the 1st day of March, 1994 by an assessee, the actual cost of asset shall be reduced by the amount of duty leviable under the Customs Tariff Act, 1975 and a claim of credit has been made and allowed under the Central Excise Rules, 1944.”;

(b) after Explanation 9, the following Explanation shall be inserted with effect from the 1st day of April, 1999, namely:—

“Explanation 10.—Where a portion of the cost of an asset acquired by the assessee has been met directly or indirectly by the Central Government or a State Government or any authority established under any law or by any other person, in the form of a subsidy or grant or reimbursement (by whatever name called), then, so much of the cost as is relatable to such subsidy or grant or reimbursement shall not be included in the actual cost of the asset to the assessee:

Provided that where such subsidy or grant or reimbursement is of such nature that it can not be directly relatable to the asset acquired, so much of the amount which bears to the total subsidy or reimbursement or grant the same proportion as such asset bears to all the assets in respect of or with reference to which the subsidy or grant or reimbursement is so received, shall not be included in the actual cost of the asset to the assessee.”.

28. In section 56 of the Income-tax Act, with effect from the 1st day of April, 1999,—

Amendment of section 56.

(a) in sub-section (2), after clause (iv), the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

“(v) income referred to in sub-clause (xii) of clause (24) of section 2:

Provided that in respect of any property—

(a) transferred otherwise than for adequate consideration, the amount by which the value of such property determined in the manner laid down in Schedule III of the Wealth-tax Act, 1957, as on the date of actual receipt exceeds the value of the consideration shall be deemed to be the income in the hands of the transferee;

27 of 1957.

(b) transferred for a consideration which, having regard to the circumstances of the case, has not passed or is not intended to pass either in full or in part from the transferor, the amount of the consideration which has not passed or is not intended to pass shall be deemed to be income in the hands of the transferee;

(c) received by way of release, discharge, surrender, forfeiture or abandonment of any debt, contract or other actionable claim or of any interest in property by any person, the value of the release, discharge, surrender, forfeiture or abandonment to the extent to which it has not been found to the satisfaction of the Assessing Officer to have been bonafide shall be deemed to be the income in the hands of the person in whose favour the release has been made;

(d) for which a person who is absolutely entitled to property causes or has caused the same to be vested in whatever manner in himself and any other person jointly without adequate consideration and such other person makes an appropriation from or out of the said property, the amount of the appropriation used for the benefit of the person making the appropriation or for the benefit of any other person shall be deemed to be income of the beneficiary;

(e) by way of an interest in property as a tenant for a term or for life or a remainderman surrenders or relinquishes his interest in property otherwise allows his interest to be terminated without consideration or for a consideration which is not adequate, the value of the interest so surrendered, relinquished or allowed to be terminated or, as the case may be, the amount by which such value exceeds the consideration received shall be deemed to be income of the beneficiary.”;

(b) after sub-section (2), the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

“(3) The income referred to in clause (v) of sub-section (2) of section 56 shall be computed after excluding—

(a) the amounts received from a person resident outside India out of the moneys standing to his credit in a Non-Resident (External) Account in any Bank in India in accordance with the provisions of the Foreign Exchange Regulation Act, 1973. and any rules made thereunder.

46 of 1973.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this clause, “person resident outside India” has the meaning assigned to it in clause (q) of section 2 of the Foreign Exchange Regulation Act, 1973;

(b) the amounts received from a citizen of India or a person of Indian origin who is not resident in India by any relative of such person in India of convertible foreign exchange remitted from a country outside India in accordance with the provisions of the Foreign Exchange Regulation Act, 1973 and any rules made thereunder;

46 of 1973.

(c) the amounts received from a citizen of India or a person of Indian origin who is not resident in India, by any relative of such person in India of property in the form of any foreign exchange asset as defined in clause (b) of section 115C;

46 of 1973.

(d) the amount received from an individual who is a Non-Resident Indian, once out of the moneys standing to his credit in an account opened and operated in accordance with the Non-

Resident (Non-Repatriable) Rupee Deposit Scheme, 1992;

(e) the amount received from an individual who is a Non-Resident Indian or property in the form of the bonds specified under sub-clause (iid) of clause (15) of section 10:

Provided that where an individual who is a Non-Resident Indian in any previous year in which the bonds are acquired, becomes a resident in India in any subsequent year, the provisions of this clause shall apply in respect of the transfer of property referred to in this clause in such subsequent year or any year thereafter.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this clause, the expression “Non-Resident Indian” shall have the meaning assigned to it in clause (e) of section 115C;

(f) the aggregate value of all cash, movable and immovable property not exceeding two lakh rupees received by a person at the time of his marriage; 39 of 1925.

(g) the movable and immovable property received under a will;

(h) the movable and immovable property received in contemplation of death which has the same meaning as in section 191 of the Indian Succession Act, 1925;

(i) the ex-gratia payments given by an employer to any employee by way of bonus, gratuity or pension or to the dependants of a deceased employee, to the extent to which the payment of such bonus, gratuity or pension is proved to the satisfaction of the Assessing Officer as being reasonable, having regard to the circumstances of the case and is made solely in recognition of the services rendered by the employee;

(j) the amounts received for meeting the educational and medical expenses from any relative upon whom the assessee is dependant for support and maintenance, to the extent such amounts are proved to the satisfaction of the Assessing Officer as being reasonable having regard to the circumstances of the case;

(k) the aggregate value of all cash, movable or immovable property for an amount not exceeding thirty thousand rupees received by any person during a financial year.’.

Amendment of section 69C.

29. In section 69C of the Income-tax Act, the following proviso shall be inserted at the end with effect from the 1st day of April, 1999, namely:—

“Provided that, notwithstanding anything contained in any other provision of this Act, such unexplained expenditure which is deemed to be the income of the assessee shall not be allowed as a deduction under any head of income.”.

Insertion of new section 71B.

30. After section 71A of the Income-tax Act, the following section shall be inserted with effect from the 1st day of April, 1999, namely:—

Carry forward and set-off of loss from house property.

‘71B. Where for any assessment year the net result of computation under the head “Income from house property” is a loss to the assessee and such loss cannot be or is not wholly set-off against income from any other head of income in accordance with the provisions of section 71, so much of the loss as has not been so set-off or where he has no income under any other head, the whole loss shall, subject to the other provisions of this Chapter, be carried forward to the following assessment year and—

(i) be set-off against the income from house property assessable for that assessment year; and

(ii) the loss, if any, which has not been set-off wholly, the amount of loss not so set-off shall be carried forward to the following assessment year, not being more than eight assessment years immediately succeeding the assessment year for which the loss was first computed.’.

Amendment of section 72A.

31. In section 72A of the Income-tax Act, after sub-section (3) and before the Explanation, the following sub-section shall be inserted with effect from the 1st day of April, 1999, namely:—

“(4) Where there has been reorganisation of business, whereby, a firm is succeeded by a company fulfilling the conditions laid down in clause (xiii) of section 47 or a proprietary concern is succeeded by a company fulfilling the conditions laid down in clause (xiv) of section 47, then, notwithstanding anything contained in any other provisions of this Act, the accumulated loss and the unabsorbed depreciation of the predecessor firm or the proprietary concern, as the case may be, shall be deemed to be the loss or allowance for depreciation of the successor company for the previous year in which business reorganisation was effected and other provisions of this Act relating to set off and carry forward of loss and allowance for depreciation shall apply accordingly.”.

32. For sections 80DD and 80DDA of the Income-tax Act, the following section shall be substituted with effect from the 1st day of April, 1999, namely:—

Substitution of new section for sections 80DD and 80DDA.

'80DD. (1) In computing the total income of an assessee who is a resident of India, being an individual or a Hindu undivided family, there shall be deducted, in accordance with and subject to the provisions of this section, the amount-

Deduction in respect of maintenance including medical treatment of handicapped dependant.

(a) of expenditure incurred by way of medical treatment (including nursing), training and rehabilitation of a handicapped dependant; or

(b) paid or deposited under any scheme framed in this behalf by the Life Insurance Corporation or Unit Trust of India subject to the conditions specified in sub-section (2) and approved by the Board in this behalf for the maintenance of handicapped dependant, out of his income chargeable to tax:

Provided that no such amount shall exceed forty thousand rupees in the aggregate under clause (a) or clause (b) or both.

(2) The deduction under clause (b) of sub-section (1) shall be allowed only if the following conditions are fulfilled, namely:—

(a) the scheme referred to in clause (b) of sub-section (1) provides for payment of annuity or lump sum amount for the benefit of a handicapped dependant in the event of the death of the individual or the member of the Hindu undivided family in whose name subscription to the scheme has been made;

(b) the assessee nominates either the handicapped dependant or any other person or a trust to receive the payment on his behalf, for the benefit of the handicapped dependant.

(3) If the handicapped dependant predeceases the individual or the member of the Hindu undivided family referred to in sub-section (2), an amount equal to the amount paid or deposited under clause (b) of sub-section (1) shall be deemed to be the income of the assessee of the previous year in which such amount is received by the assessee and shall accordingly be chargeable to tax as the income of that previous year.

(4) In this section,—

(a) "Government hospital" includes a departmental dispensary whether full-time or part-time established and run by a Department of the Government for the medical attendance and treatment of a class or classes of Government servants and members of their families, a hospital maintained by a local authority and any other hospital maintained by a local authority and any other hospital with which arrangements have been made by the Government for the treatment of Government servants;

(b) "handicapped dependant" means a person who-

(i) is a relative of the individual or, as the case may be, is a member of the Hindu undivided family and is not dependant on any person other than such individual or Hindu undivided family for his support or maintenance; and

(ii) is suffering from a permanent physical disability (including blindness) or is subject to mental retardation, being a permanent physical disability or mental retardation specified in the rules made by the Board for the purposes of this section, which is certified by a physician, a surgeon, an oculist or a psychiatrist, as the case may be, working in a Government hospital, and which has the effect of reducing considerably such person's capacity for normal work or engaging in a gainful employment or occupation;

(c) "Life Insurance Corporation" shall have the same meaning as in clause (iii) of sub-section (8) of section 88;

(d) "Unit Trust of India" means the Unit Trust of India established under the Unit Trust of India Act, 1963.'

52 of 1963.

33. In section 80G of the Income-tax Act with effect from the 1st day of April, 1999, namely:—

Amendment of section 80G.

(a) in sub-section (1), in clause (i), after the word, brackets, figures and letters "sub-clause (iiih)", the words, brackets, figures and letters "or sub-clause (iiihg)" shall be inserted;

(b) in sub-section (2), in clause (a), after sub-clause (iiihf), the following sub-clause shall be inserted, namely:—

"(iiihg) the National Sports Fund to be set up by the Central Government; or".

34. After section 80G of the Income-tax Act, the following section shall be inserted with effect from the 1st day of April, 1998, namely:—

Insertion of new section 80GG.

Deductions in respect of rents paid.

'80GG. In computing the total income of an assessee, not being an assessee having any income falling within clause (13A) of section 10, there shall be deducted any expenditure incurred by him in excess of ten per cent. of his total income towards payment of rent (by whatever name called) in respect of any furnished or unfurnished accommodation occupied by him for the purposes of his own residence, to the extent to which such excess expenditure does not exceed two thousand rupees per month or twenty-five per cent. of his total income for the year, whichever is less, and subject to such other conditions or limitations as may be prescribed, having regard to the area or place in which such accommodation is situated and other relevant considerations:

Provided that nothing in this section shall apply to an assessee in any case where any residential accommodation is,—

(i) owned by the assessee or by his spouse or minor child or, where such assessee is a member of a Hindu undivided family, at the place where he ordinarily resides or performs duties of his office or employment or carries on his business or profession; or

(ii) owned by the assessee at any other place, being accommodation in the occupation of the assessee, the value of which is to be determined under sub-clause (i) of clause (a) or, as the case may be, clause (b) of sub-section (2) of section 23.

Explanation.—In this section, the expressions “ten per cent. of his total income” and “twenty-five per cent. of his total income” shall mean ten per cent. or twenty-five per cent, as the case may be, of the assessee’s total income before allowing deduction for any expenditure under this section.’

Insertion of new section 80HHBA.

35. After section 80HHB of the Income-tax Act, the following section shall be inserted with effect from the 1st day of April, 1999, namely:—

Deduction in respect of profits and gains from housing projects in certain cases.

'80HHBA. (1) Where the gross total income of an assessee being an Indian company or a person (other than a company) who is a resident in India includes any profits and gains derived from the execution of a housing project awarded to the assessee on the basis of global tender and such project is aided by the World Bank, there shall, in accordance with and subject to the provisions of this section, be allowed, in computing the total income of the assessee, a deduction from such profits and gains of an amount equal to fifty per cent. thereof.

(2) The deductions under this section shall be allowed only if the following conditions are fulfilled, namely:—

(i) the assessee maintains separate accounts in respect of the profits and gains derived from the business of the execution of the housing project undertaken by him and, where the assessee is a person other than an Indian company or a co-operative society, such accounts have been audited by an accountant as defined in the Explanation below sub-section (2) of section 288 and the assessee furnishes along with his return of income the report of such audit in the prescribed form duly signed and verified by such accountant;

(ii) an amount equal to fifty per cent. of the profits and gains referred to in sub-section (1) is debited to the profits and loss account of the previous year in respect of which the deduction under this section is to be allowed and credited to a reserve account (to be called the Housing Projects Reserve Account) to be utilised by the assessee during a period of five years next following for the purposes of his business other than for distribution by way of dividends or profit:

Provided that where the amount credited by the assessee to the Housing Projects Reserve Account in pursuance of clause (ii) is less than fifty per cent. of the profits and gains referred to in sub-section (1), the deduction under this section shall be limited to the amount so credited in pursuance of clause (ii).

(3) If at any time before the expiry of five years from the end of the previous year in which the deduction under sub-section (1) is allowed, the assessee utilises the amount credited to the Housing Projects Reserve Account for distribution by way of dividends or profit or for any other purpose which is not a purpose of the business of the assessee, the deduction originally allowed under sub-section (1) shall be deemed to have been wrongly allowed and the Assessing Officer may, notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, recompute the total income of the assessee for the relevant previous year and make necessary amendment and the provision of section 154 shall, so far as may be, apply thereto, the period of four years specified in sub-section (7) of that section being reckoned from the end of the previous year in which the money was so utilised.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other provision of this Chapter under heading “C.- Deduction in respect of certain incomes”, no part of the income payable to the assessee for the execution of a housing project under sub-section (1) shall qualify for deduction for any assessment year under any other provision.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section,—

(a) “housing project” means a project for—

(i) the construction of any building, road, bridge or other structure in any part of India;

(ii) the execution of such other work (of whatever nature) as may be prescribed;

(b) "World Bank" means the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development Bank referred to in the International Monetary Fund and Bank Act, 1945'.

36. In section 80HHD of the Income-tax Act, after sub-section (6), and before the Explanation, the following sub-section shall be inserted and shall be deemed to have been inserted with effect from the 1st day of April, 1990, namely:— Amendment of section 80HHD.

'(7) Where a deduction under sub-section (1) is claimed and allowed in respect of profits derived from the business of a hotel, such part of profits shall not qualify to that extent for deduction for any assessment year under any other provisions of this Chapter under the heading "C.—Deductions in respect of certain incomes", and shall in no case exceed the profits and gains of such hotel.'

(2) any house for residential or commercial purposes which forms part of stock-in-trade;

(3) any house which the assessee may occupy for the purposes of any business or profession carried on by him;

(4) any residential property that has been let-out for a minimum period of three hundred days in the previous year;

(5) any property in the nature of commercial establishments or complexes.’;

(ii) after clause (vi), in the Explanation, in clause (b), in sub-clause (ii), for the words “or any land held by the assessee as stock-in-trade for a period of five years from the date of its acquisition by him”, the words “or any land held by the assessee as stock-in-trade for a period of seven years from the date of its acquisition by him” shall be substituted;

(c) for clause (s), the following clause shall be substituted with effect from the 1st day of October, 1998, namely:—

‘(s) the expressions “Chief Commissioner, Director-General, Commissioner, Commissioner (Appeals), Director, Additional Director of Income-tax, Additional Commissioner of Income-tax, Joint Director, Joint Commissioner of Income-tax, Deputy Director, Deputy Commissioner, Assistant Commissioner, Assistant-Director, Income-tax Officer, Inspector of Income-tax and Tax Recovery Officer” shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them under section 2 of the Income-tax Act.’.

70. In section 5 of the Wealth-tax Act, for clause (vi), the following clause shall be substituted with effect from the 1st day of April, 1999, namely:—

Amendment of section 5.

“(vi) one house or part of a house or a plot of land not exceeding five hundred square metres in area belonging to an individual or a Hindu undivided family;”.

Amendment of section 6.

71. In section 6 of the Wealth-tax Act, the words “or resident but not ordinarily resident in India”, wherever they occur, shall be omitted with effect from the 1st day of April, 1999.

Insertion of new section 23A.

72. After section 23 of the Wealth-tax Act, the following section shall be inserted with effect from the 1st day of October, 1998, namely:—

Appealable orders before Commissioner (Appeals).

‘23A. (1) Any person—

- (a) objecting to the amount of net wealth determined under this Act; or
- (b) objecting to the amount of wealth-tax determined as payable by him under this Act; or
- (c) denying his liability to be assessed under this Act; or
- (d) objecting to any penalty imposed by the Assessing Officer under section 18 or section 18A; or
- (e) objecting to any order of the Assessing Officer under sub-section (2) of section 20; or
- (f) objecting to any penalty imposed by the Assessing Officer under the provisions of section 221 of the Income-tax Act as applied under section 32 for the purposes of wealth-tax; or
- (g) objecting to any order made by the Assessing Officer under section 22 treating him as the agent of a person residing outside India; or
- (h) objecting to any order of the Assessing Officer under section 35 having the effect of enhancing the assessment or reducing a refund or refusing to allow the claim made by the assessee under the said section; or
- (i) objecting to any order of the Valuation Officer under section 35 having the effect of enhancing the valuation of any asset or refusing to allow the claim made by the assessee under the said section; or
- (j) objecting to any penalty imposed by the Deputy Director or Deputy Commissioner under section 18A, may appeal to the Commissioner (Appeals) against the assessment or order, as the case may be, in the prescribed form and verified in the prescribed manner and on payment of a fee of two hundred and fifty rupees.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this sub-section, where the post of Deputy Commissioner has been redesignated as Joint Commissioner on or after the 1st day of October, 1998 the references in this sub-section for Deputy Commissioner shall be substituted by Joint Commissioner.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) of section 23, every appeal under this Act which is pending immediately before the appointed day, before the Deputy Commissioner (Appeals) and any matter arising out of or connected with such appeal and which is so pending shall stand transferred on that day to the Commissioner (Appeals) and the Commissioner (Appeals) may proceed with such appeals or matter from the stage on which it was on that day:

Provided that the appellant may demand that before proceeding further with the appeal or matter, the previous proceedings or any part thereof be re-opened or that he be re-heard.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this sub-section, “appointed day” means the day appointed under section 246A of the Income-tax Act.

(3) An appeal shall be presented within thirty days of the receipt of the notice of demand relating to the assessment or penalty objected to or the day on which any order objected to is communicated to him, but the Commissioner (Appeals) may admit an appeal after the expiration of the period aforesaid, if he is satisfied that the appellant had sufficient cause for not presenting the appeal within that period.

(4) Where a return has been filed by an assessee, no appeal under this section shall be admitted unless at the time of filing of the appeal, he has paid the tax due on the net wealth returned by him.

(5) The Commissioner (Appeals) shall fix a day and place for the hearing of the appeal and may, from time to time, adjourn the hearing.

(6) If the valuation of any asset is objected to in an appeal under clause (a) or clause (i) of sub-section (1) the Commissioner (Appeals) shall,—

- (a) in case where such valuation has been made by a Valuation Officer under section 16A, give such Valuation Officer an opportunity of being heard;
- (b) in any other case on request being made in this behalf by the Assessing Officer, give an opportunity of being heard to any Valuation Officer nominated for the purpose by the Assessing Officer.

(7) The Commissioner (Appeal) may,—

(a) at the hearing of an appeal, allow an appellant to go into any ground of appeal not specified in the grounds of appeal;

(b) before disposing of any appeal, make such further enquiry as he thinks fit or cause further enquiry to be made by the Assessing Officer or, as the case may be, by the Valuation Officer.

(8) In disposing of an appeal, the Commissioner (Appeals) may pass such order as he thinks fit which may include an order enhancing the assessment or penalty:

Provided that no order enhancing the assessment or penalty shall be made unless the person affected thereby has been given a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against such enhancement.

(9) In disposing of an appeal, the Commissioner (Appeals) may consider and decide any matter arising out of the proceedings in which the order appealed against was passed, notwithstanding that such matter was not placed before the Commissioner (Appeals) by the appellant.

(10) The order of the Commissioner (Appeals) disposing of the appeal shall be in writing and shall state the points for determining the decision thereon and reasons for the decision.

(11) A copy of every order passed by the Commissioner (Appeals) under this section shall be forwarded to the appellant and the Chief Commissioner or Commissioner."

73. In section 24 of the Wealth-tax Act, with effect from the 1st day of October, 1998,—

Amendment of section 24.

(a) for sub-section (1), the following sub-section shall be substituted, namely:—

“(1) An assessee objecting to an order passed by the Commissioner (Appeals) under sub-section (10) of section 23A may appeal to the Appellate Tribunal within thirty days of the date on which the order is communicated to him.”;

(b) in sub-section (2), for the words, figures and brackets “a Deputy Commissioner (Appeals) or a Commissioner (Appeals) under section 23”, the words, figures, brackets and letter “a Commissioner (Appeals) under sub-section (10) of section 23A” shall be substituted;

(c) in sub-section (2A), the words and brackets “the Deputy Commissioner (Appeals) or”, at both the places where they occur, shall be omitted.

74. In section 25 of the Wealth-tax Act, with effect from the 1st day of October, 1998,—

Amendment of section 25.

(a) after sub-section (3), the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

“(3A) On every application made by an assessee for revision under sub-section (1), an order shall be passed by the Commissioner within one year from the end of financial year in which such application is made by the assessee for revision:

Provided that where an order on an application for revision is not passed by the Commissioner within the period mentioned in this sub-section, then, it shall be presumed as if the application for revision has been allowed and all the consequences shall follow, accordingly.

Explanation.—In computing the period of limitation for the purposes of this sub-section, the time taken in giving an opportunity to the assessee to be re-heard under the proviso to section 39 and any period during which any proceeding under this section is stayed by an order or injunction of any court shall be excluded.”;

(b) for sub-section (4), the following sub-section shall be substituted, namely:—

“(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (3) or sub-section (3A), an order in revision under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) may be passed at any time in the case of an order which has been passed in consequence of, or to give effect to, any finding or direction contained in an order of Appellate Tribunal, the High Court or the Supreme Court.”.

75. After section 27 of the Wealth-tax Act, the following section shall be inserted with effect from the 1st day of October, 1998, namely:—

Insertion of new section 27A.

“27A. (1) The assessee or the Chief Commissioner or Commissioner may, within sixty days of the day upon which he is served with notice of an order under section 24 or section 26 or clause (e) of sub-section (1) of section 35 may file on or after the 1st day of October, 1998, an appeal to the High Court.

(2) An appeal shall lie to the High Court from every order passed in appeal by the Appellate Tribunal, under sub-section (1) of section 24 only if the High Court is satisfied that the case involves a substantial question of law.

(3) In an appeal under this section, the Memorandum of Appeal shall precisely state the substantial question of law involved in the appeal, and, where the appeal is made by the assessee, shall be accompanied by a fee of five thousand rupees.

(4) Where the High Court is satisfied that a substantial question of law is involved in any case, it shall formulate that question.

(5) The appeal shall be heard only on the question so formulated and the respondent shall, at the time of hearing of the appeal, be allowed to argue that the case does not involve such question:

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall be deemed to take away or abridge the power of the Court to hear, for reasons to be recorded, the appeal on any other substantial question of law not formulated by it, if it is satisfied that the case involves such question.

(6) The High Court shall decide the question of law so formulated and deliver such judgment thereon containing the grounds on which such decision is founded and may award such cost as it deems fit.”.

Amendment of section 28.

76. In section 28 of the Wealth-tax Act, for the words and figures “under section 27”, the words, figures and letter “under section 27 or an appeal filed before the High Court under section 27A” shall be substituted with effect from the 1st day of October, 1998.

Amendment of section 29.

77. In section 29 of the Wealth-tax Act, with effect from the 1st day of October, 1998,—

(a) in sub-section (1), for the words and figures “under section 27”, the words, figures and letter “under section 27 or an appeal filed under section 27A” shall be substituted;

(b) after sub-section (2), the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

“(2A) Where the judgement of the High Court in an appeal filed before it is varied or reversed on appeal, the effect shall be given to the order passed on appeal by the Supreme Court.”.

Gift-tax

78. In the Gift-tax Act, 1958 (hereinafter referred to as the Gift-tax Act), in section 3, after sub-section (2), the following sub-section shall be inserted with effect from the 1st day of October, 1998, namely:— 25 18 of 1958.

"(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2), the provisions of this Act shall cease to apply and shall have no effect whatsoever in respect of any gift made on or after the 1st day of October, 1998."

79. (1) The provisions of sections 23, 24, 25, 28 and 29 of the Wealth-tax Act as amended and section 27A as inserted, by the Finance (No.2) Act, 1998, shall apply with necessary modification as if the said provisions were referred to in the Gift-tax Act instead of the Wealth-tax Act.

(2) The Wealth-tax authorities as substituted by section 68 of the Finance (No.2) Act, 1998 shall be deemed to be the Gift-tax authorities for the purposes of the Gift-tax Act.

 - (f) where the tax arrear is payable under the indirect tax enactment, at the rate of fifty per cent. of the tax arrear.

Particulars to be furnished in declaration.

92. A declaration under section 91 shall be made to the designated authority and shall be in such form and shall be verified in such manner as may be prescribed.

Time and manner of payment of tax arrear.

93. (1) Within sixty days from the date of receipt of the declaration under section 91, the designated authority shall, by order, determine the amount payable by the declarant in accordance with the provisions of this Scheme and grant a certificate in such form as may be prescribed to the declarant setting forth therein the particulars of the tax arrear and the sum payable after such determination:

Provided that where any material particular furnished in the declaration is found to be false, by the authority at any stage, it shall be presumed as if the declaration was never made and all the consequences under the direct tax enactment or indirect tax enactment under which the proceedings against the declarant are or were pending shall be deemed to have been revived.

(2) The declarant shall pay, the sum determined by the designated authority within thirty days of the passing of an order by the designated authority and intimate the fact of such payment to the designated authority alongwith proof thereof and the designated authority shall thereupon issue the certificate to the declarant.

(3) Every order passed under sub-section (1), determining the sum payable under this Scheme, shall be conclusive as to the matters stated therein and no matter covered by such order shall be reopened in any other proceeding under the direct tax enactment or indirect tax enactment or under any other law for the time being in force.

(4) Where the declarant has filed an appeal or reference or a reply to the show cause notice against any order or notice giving rise to the tax arrear before any authority or tribunal or court, then, notwithstanding anything contained in any other provisions of any law for the time being in force, such appeal or reference or reply shall be deemed to have been withdrawn:

Provided that where the declarant has filed a writ petition or appeal or reference before any High Court or the Supreme Court against any order in respect of the tax arrear, the declarant shall file an application before such High Court or the Supreme Court for withdrawing such writ petition, appeal or reference and after withdrawal of such writ petition, appeal or reference with the leave of the Court, furnish proof of such withdrawal along with the intimation referred to in sub-section (2).

Immunity from prosecution and imposition of penalty in certain cases.

94. The designated authority shall, subject to the conditions provided in section 93, grant immunity from instituting any proceeding for prosecution for any offence under any direct tax enactment or indirect tax enactment, or from the imposition of penalty under any of such enactments, in respect of matters covered in the declaration under section 91.

Appellate authority not to proceed in certain cases.

95. No appellate authority shall proceed to decide any issue relating to the disputed chargeable expenditure, disputed chargeable interest, disputed income, disputed wealth, disputed value of gift or tax arrear specified in the declaration and in respect of which an order had been made under section 93 by the designated authority or the payment of the sum determined under that section.

No refund of amount paid under the Scheme.

96. Any amount paid in pursuance of a declaration made under section 91 shall not be refundable under any circumstances.

Removal of doubts.

97. For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that, save as otherwise expressly provided in sub-section (3) of section 93, nothing contained in this Scheme shall be construed as conferring any benefit, concession or immunity on the declarant in any assessment or proceedings other than those in relation to which the declaration has been made.

Scheme not to apply in certain cases.

98. The provisions of this Scheme shall not apply—

(i) in respect of tax arrear under any direct tax enactment,—

(a) in a case where prosecution for concealment has been instituted on or before the date of filing of the declaration under section 91 under any direct tax enactment in respect of any assessment year, to any tax arrear in respect of such assessment year under such direct tax enactment;

(b) in a case where an order has been passed by the Settlement Commission under any direct tax enactment for any assessment year, to any tax arrear in respect of such assessment year under such direct tax enactment;

(c) in a case where no appeal or reference or writ petition is pending before any appellate authority or High Court or the Supreme Court or no application for revision is pending before the Commissioner;

(ii) in respect of tax arrear under any indirect tax enactment,—

(a) in a case where prosecution for any offence punishable under any provisions of any indirect tax enactment has been instituted on or before the date of filing of the declaration under section 91, in respect of any tax arrear in respect of such case under such indirect tax enactment;

(b) in a case where show cause notice or a notice of demand under any indirect tax enactment has not been issued;

(iii) to any person in respect of whom prosecution for any offence punishable under Chapter IX or Chapter XVII of the Indian Penal Code, the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985, the Terrorists and Disruptive Activities (Prevention) Act, 1987, the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988, or for the purpose of enforcement of any civil liability has been instituted on or before the filing of the declaration or such person has been convicted of any such offence punishable under any such enactment;

52 of 1974.

(iv) to any person in respect of whom an order of detention has been made under the Conservation of Foreign Exchange and Prevention of Smuggling Activities Act, 1974:

Provided that—

(a) such order of detention, being an order to which the provisions of section 9 or section 12A of the said Act do not apply, has not been revoked on the report of the Advisory Board under section 8 of the said Act or before the receipt of the report of the Advisory Board; or

(b) such order of detention, being an order to which the provisions of section 9 of the said Act apply, has not been revoked before the expiry of the time for, or on the basis of, the review under sub-section (3) of section 9, or on the report of the Advisory Board under section 8, read with sub-section (2) of section 9 of the said Act; or

(c) such order of detention, being an order to which the provisions of section 12A of the said Act apply, has not been revoked before the expiry of the time for, or on the basis of, the first review under sub-section (3) of that section, or on the basis of the report of the Advisory Board under section 8, read with sub-section (6) of section 12A, of the said Act; or

(d) such order of detention has not been set aside by a court of competent jurisdiction;

27 of 1992.

(v) to any person notified under sub-section (2) of section 3 of the Special Court (Trial of Offences Relating to Transaction in Securities) Act, 1992.

99. (1) The Central Government may, from time to time, issue such orders, instructions and directions to the authorities, as it may deem fit, for the proper administration of this Scheme, and such authorities, and all other persons employed in the execution of this Scheme shall observe and follow such orders, instructions and directions of the Central Government: Power of Central Government to issue directions.

Provided that no such orders, instructions or directions shall be issued so as to require any designated authority to dispose of a particular case in a particular manner.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, the Central Government may, if it considers necessary or expedient so to do, for the purpose of proper and efficient administration of the Scheme and collection of revenue, issue, from time to time, general or special orders in respect of any class of cases, setting forth directions or instructions as to the guidelines, principles or procedures to be followed by the authorities in the work relating to administration of the Scheme and collection of revenue and any such order may, if the Central Government is of opinion that it is necessary in the public interest so to do, be published in the prescribed manner.

100. (1) If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Scheme, the Central Government may, by order, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Scheme, remove the difficulty: Power to remove difficulties.

Provided that no such order shall be made after the expiry of a period of two years from the date on which the provisions of this Scheme come into force.

(2) Every order made under this section shall, as soon as may be after it is made, be laid before each House of Parliament.

101. (1) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules for carrying out the provisions of this Scheme. Power to make rules.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

(a) the form in which a declaration may be made under section 91 and the manner in which such declaration may be verified;

(b) the form of certificate which may be granted under sub-section (1) of section 93;

(c) the manner in which the orders may be published under sub-section (2) of section 99;

(d) any other matter which is to be, or may be, prescribed, or in respect of which provision is to be made, by rules.

(3) The Central Government shall cause every rule made under this Scheme to be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament, while it is in session for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or the successive sessions aforesaid, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or both Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.

Application for settlement of cases.

127B. (1) Any importer, exporter or any other person (hereinafter referred to as the applicant in this Chapter) may, at any stage of a case relating to him make an application in such form and in such manner as may be specified by rules, and containing a full and true disclosure of his duty liability which has not been disclosed before the proper officer, the manner in which such liability has been incurred, the additional amount of customs duty accepted to be payable by him and such other particulars as may be specified by rules including the particulars of such dutiable goods in respect of which he admits short levy on account of misclassification or otherwise of goods, to the Settlement Commission to have the case settled and such application shall be disposed of in the manner hereinafter provided:

Provided that no such application shall be made unless—

(a) the applicant has filed a bill of entry, or a shipping bill, in respect of import or export of goods, as the case may be, or a show cause notice has been issued to him by the proper officer;

(b) the additional amount of duty accepted by the applicant in his application exceeds two lakh rupees:

Provided further that no application shall be entertained by the Settlement Commission under this sub-section in cases which are pending in the Appellate Tribunal or any Court:

Provided also that no application under this sub-section shall be made in relation to goods to which section 123 applies or to goods in relation to which any offence under the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985 has been committed :

61 of 1985.

Provided also that no application under this sub-section shall be made for the interpretation of the classification of the goods under the Customs Tariff Act, 1975.

51 of 1975.

(2) Where any dutiable goods, books of account, other documents or any sale proceeds of the goods have been seized under section 110, the applicant shall not be entitled to make an application under sub-section (1) before the expiry of one hundred and eighty days from the date of the seizure.

(3) Every application made under sub-section (1) shall be accompanied by such fees as may be specified by rules.

(4) An application made under sub-section (1) shall not be allowed to be withdrawn by the applicant.

Procedure on receipt of application under section 127B.

127C. (1) On receipt of an application under section 127B, the Settlement Commission shall call for a report from the Commissioner of Customs having jurisdiction and on the basis of the materials contained in such report and having regard to the nature and circumstances of the case or the complexity of the investigation involved therein, the Settlement Commission may, by order, allow the application to be proceeded with or reject the application:

Provided that an application shall not be rejected under this sub-section, unless an opportunity has been given to the applicant of being heard:

Provided further that the Commissioner of Customs shall furnish such report within a period of one month of the receipt of the communication from the Settlement Commission, failing which it shall be presumed that the Commissioner of Customs has no objection to such application; but he may raise objections at the time of hearing fixed by the Settlement Commission for admission of the application and the date of such hearing shall be communicated by the Settlement Commission to the applicant and the Commissioner of Customs within a period not exceeding two months from the date of receipt of such application, unless the presiding officer of the Bench extends the said period of two months, after recording the reasons in writing.

(2) A copy of every order under sub-section (1) shall be sent to the applicant and to the Commissioner of Customs having jurisdiction.

(3) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (4), the applicant shall, within thirty days of the receipt of a copy of the order under sub-section (1) allowing the application to be proceeded with, pay the amount of additional duty admitted by him as payable and shall furnish proof of such payment to the Settlement Commission.

(4) If the Settlement Commission is satisfied, on an application made under sub-section (1) that the applicant is unable for good and sufficient reasons to pay the amount referred to in sub-section (3), within the time specified in that sub-section, it may extend the time for payment of the amount which remains unpaid or allow payment thereof by instalments, if the applicant furnishes adequate security for the payment thereof.

(5) Where the additional amount of customs duty referred to in sub-section (3) is not paid by the applicant within the time specified or extended period, as the case may be, the Settlement Commission may direct that the amount which remains unpaid, together with simple interest at the rate of eighteen per cent. per annum or at the rate notified by the Board from time to time on the amount remaining unpaid, be recovered as the sum due to the Central Government by the proper officer having jurisdiction over the applicant in accordance with the provisions of section 142.

(6) Where an application is allowed to be proceeded with under sub-section (1), the Settlement Commission may call for the relevant records from the Commissioner of Customs having jurisdiction and after examination of such records, if the Settlement Commission is of the opinion that any further enquiry or investigation in the matter is necessary, it may direct the Commissioner (Investigation) to make or cause to be made such further enquiry or investigation and furnish a report on the matters covered by the application and any other matter relating to the case.

(7) After examination of the records and the report of the Commissioner of Customs received under sub-section (1), and the report, if any, of the Commissioner (Investigation) of the Settlement Commission under sub-section (6), and after giving an opportunity to the applicant and to the Commissioner of Customs having jurisdiction to be heard, either in person or through a representative duly authorised in this behalf, and after examining such further evidence as may be placed before it or obtained by it, the Settlement Commission may, in accordance with the provisions of this Act, pass such order as it thinks fit on the matters covered by the application and any other matter relating to the case not covered by the application, but referred to in the report of the Commissioner of Customs or the Commissioner (Investigation) under sub-section (1) or sub-section (6);

1 of 1944.

(8) Subject to the provisions of section 32A of the Central Excise Act, 1944, the materials brought on record before the Settlement Commission shall be considered by the Members of the concerned Bench before passing any order under sub-section (7) and, in relation to the passing of such order, the provisions of section 32D of the Central Excise Act, 1944 shall apply.

(9) Every order passed under sub-section (7) shall provide for the terms of settlement including any demand by way of duty, penalty or interest, the manner in which any sum due under the settlement shall be paid and all other matters to make the settlement effective and shall also provide that the settlement shall be void if it is subsequently found by the Settlement Commission that it has been obtained by fraud, or misrepresentation of facts.

(10) Where any duty payable in pursuance of an order under sub-section (7) is not paid by the applicant within thirty days of the receipt of a copy of the order by him, then, whether or not the Settlement Commission has extended the time for payment of such duty or has allowed payment thereof by instalments, the applicant shall be liable to pay simple interest at the rate of eighteen per cent. per annum or at such other rate as notified by the Board on the amount remaining unpaid from the date of expiry of the period of thirty days aforesaid.

(11) Where a settlement becomes void as provided under sub-section (9) the proceedings with respect to the matters covered by the settlement shall be deemed to have been revived from the stage at which the application was allowed to be proceeded with by the Settlement Commission and proper officer may, notwithstanding anything contained in any other provision of this Act, complete such proceedings at any time before the expiry of two years from the date of the receipt of communication that the settlement became void.

127D. (1) Where, during the pendency of any proceeding before it, the Settlement Commission is of the opinion that for the purpose of protecting the interests of the revenue it is necessary so to do, it may, by order, attach provisionally any property belonging to the applicant in such manner as may be specified by rules.

(2) Every provisional attachment made by the Settlement Commission under sub-section (1) shall cease to have effect from the date the sums due to the Central Government for which such attachment is made are discharged by the applicant and evidence to that effect is submitted to the Settlement Commission.

Power of Settlement Commission to order provisional attachment to protect revenue.

Power of Settlement Commission to reopen completed proceedings.

127E. If the Settlement Commission is of the opinion (the reasons for such opinion to be recorded by it in writing) that, for the proper disposal of the case pending before it, it is necessary or expedient to reopen any proceeding connected with the case but which has been completed under this Act before application for settlement under section 127B was made, it may, with the concurrence of the applicant, reopen such proceeding and pass such order thereon as it thinks fit, as if the case in relation to which the application for settlement had been made by the applicant under that section covered such proceeding also:

Provided that no proceeding shall be reopened by the Settlement Commission under this section after the expiry of five years from the date of application under sub-section (1) of section 127B.

Power and procedure of Settlement Commission.

127F. (1) In addition to the powers conferred on the Settlement Commission under Chapter V of the Central Excise Act, 1944, it shall have all the powers which are vested in an officer of the customs under this Act or the rules made thereunder.

1 of 1944.

(2) Where an application made under section 127B has been allowed to be proceeded with under section 127C, the Settlement Commission shall, until an order is passed under sub-section (7) of section 127C, have, subject to the provisions of sub-section (6) of that section, exclusive jurisdiction to exercise the powers and perform the functions of any officer of customs or Central Excise Officer as the case may be, under this Act or in the Central Excise Act, 1944, as the case may be, in relation to the case.

(3) In the absence of any express direction by the Settlement Commission to the contrary, nothing in this Chapter shall affect the operation of the provisions of this Act in so far as they relate to any matter other than those before the Settlement Commission.

(4) The Settlement Commission shall, subject to the provisions of Chapter V of the Central Excise Act, 1944 and this Chapter, have power to regulate its own procedure and the procedure of Benches thereof in all matters arising out of the exercise of its powers, or of the discharge of its functions, including the places at which the Benches shall hold their sittings.

1 of 1944.

Inspection, etc., of reports.

127G. No person shall be entitled to inspect, or obtain copies of, any report made by any officer of the Customs to the Settlement Commission; but the Settlement Commission may, in its discretion, furnish copies thereof to any such person on an application made to it in this behalf and on payment of such fee as may be specified by rules:

Provided that, for the purpose of enabling any person whose case is under consideration to rebut any evidence brought on record against him in any such report, the Settlement Commission shall, on an application made in this behalf, and on payment by such person of such fee as may be specified by rules, furnish him with a certified copy of any such report or part thereof relevant for the purpose.

Power of Settlement Commission to grant immunity from prosecution and penalty.

127H. (1) The Settlement Commission may, if it is satisfied that any person who made the application for settlement under section 127B has co-operated with the Settlement Commission in the proceedings before it and has made a full and true disclosure of his duty liability, grant to such person, subject to such conditions as it may think fit to impose, immunity from prosecution for any offence under this Act or under the Indian Penal Code or under any other Central Act for the time being in force and also either wholly or in part from the imposition of any penalty, fine and interest under this Act, with respect to the case covered by the settlement:

Provided that no such immunity shall be granted by the Settlement Commission in cases where the proceedings for the prosecution for any such offence have been instituted before the date of receipt of the application under section 127B.

(2) An immunity granted to a person under sub-section (1) shall stand withdrawn if such person fails to pay any sum specified in the order of the settlement passed under sub-section (7) of section 127C within the time specified in such order or within such further time as may be allowed by the Settlement Commission, or fails to comply with any other condition subject to which the immunity was granted and thereupon the provisions of this Act shall apply as if such immunity had not been granted.

(3) An immunity granted to a person under sub-section (1) may, at any time, be withdrawn by the Settlement Commission, if it is satisfied that such person had, in the course of the settlement proceedings, concealed any particulars, material to the settlement or had given false evidence, and thereupon such person may be tried for the offence with respect to which the immunity was granted or for any other offence of which he appears to have been guilty in connection with the settlement and shall also become liable to the imposition of any penalty under this Act to which such person would have been liable, had no such immunity been granted.

Power of Settlement Commission to send a case back to the proper officer.

127-I. (1) The Settlement Commission may, if it is of opinion that any person who made an application for settlement under section 127B has not co-operated with the Settlement Commission in the proceedings before it, send the case back to the proper officer who shall thereupon dispose of the case in accordance with the provisions of this Act as if no application under section 127B had been made.

(2) For the purpose of sub-section (1), the proper officer shall be entitled to use all the materials and other information produced by the assessee before the Settlement Commission or the results of the inquiry held or evidence recorded by the Settlement Commission in the course of the proceedings before it as if such materials, information, inquiry and evidence had been produced before such proper officer or held or recorded by him in the course of the proceedings before him.

(3) For the purposes of the time limit under section 28 and for the purposes of interest under section 28AA, in a case referred to in sub-section (1), the period commencing on and from the date of the application to the Settlement Commission under section 127B and ending with the date of receipt by the officer of customs of the order of the Settlement Commission sending the case back to the officer of customs shall be excluded.

127J. Every order of settlement passed under sub-section (7) of section 127C shall be conclusive as to the matters stated therein and no matter covered by such order shall, save as otherwise provided in this Chapter, be reopened in any proceeding under this Act or under any other law for the time being in force. Order of settlement to be conclusive.

127K. Any sum specified in an order of settlement passed under sub-section (7) of section 127C may, subject to such conditions, if any, as may be specified therein, be recovered, and any penalty for default in making payment of such sum may be imposed and recovered as sums due to the Central Government in accordance with the provisions of section 142, by the proper officer having jurisdiction over the applicant. Recovery of sums due under order of settlement.

127L. Where,—

(i) an order of settlement passed under sub-section (7) of section 127C provides for the imposition of a penalty on the applicant under section 127B for settlement, on the ground of concealment of particulars of his duty liability; or Bar on subsequent application for settlement in certain cases.

(ii) after the passing of an order of settlement under said sub-section (7) in relation to a case, such person is convicted of any offence under this Act in relation to that case; or

(iii) the case of such person is sent back to the proper officer by the Settlement Commission under section 127-I, then such person shall not be entitled to apply for settlement under section 127B in relation to any other matter.

45 of 1860.

127M. Any proceedings under this Chapter before the Settlement Commission shall be deemed to be a judicial proceeding within the meaning of sections 193 and 228, and for the purposes of section 196, of the Indian Penal Code. Proceedings before Settlement Commission to be judicial proceedings.

1 of 1944.

127. N. The provisions of Chapter V of the Central Excise Act, 1944 in so far it is not inconsistent with the provisions of this Chapter shall apply in relation to proceedings before the Settlement Commission under this Chapter."

106. (1) In the case of goods specified in the Second Schedule, being goods imported into India, there shall be levied and collected as an additional duty of customs an amount calculated at the rate set forth in the said Schedule. Additional duty of customs (motor spirit).

(2) The additional duty of customs referred to in sub-section (1) shall be in addition to any other duties of customs chargeable on such goods under the Customs Act, or any other law for the time being in force.

(3) The provisions of the Customs Act and the rules and regulations made thereunder, including those relating to refunds and exemptions from duties, shall, as far as may be, apply in relation to the levy and collection of the additional duty of customs leviable under this section in respect of any goods as they apply in relation to the levy and collection of the duties of customs on such goods under that Act or those rules and regulations, as the case may be.

107. In the Customs Tariff Act, 1975 (hereinafter referred to as the Customs Tariff Act),— Amendment of Act 51 of 1975.

(a) after section 3, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

"3A. (1) Any article which is imported into India shall in addition be liable to a duty (hereinafter referred to in this section as the special additional duty), which shall be levied at a rate to be specified by the Central Government, by notification in the Official Gazette, having regard to the maximum sales tax, local tax or any other charges for the time being leviable on a like article on its sale or purchase in India: Special additional duty.

Provided that until such rate is specified by the Central Government, the special additional duty shall be levied and collected at the rate of eight per cent. of the value of the article imported into India.

Explanation.— In this sub-section, the expression “maximum sales tax, local tax or any other charges for the time being leviable on a like article on its sale or purchase in India” means the maximum sales-tax, local tax, other charges for the time being in force, which shall be leviable on a like article, if sold or purchased in India, or if a like article is not so sold or purchased which shall be leviable on the class or description of articles to which the imported article belongs.

(2) For the purpose of calculating under this section the special additional duty on any imported article, the value of the imported article shall, notwithstanding anything contained in section 14 of the Customs Act, 1962 or section 3 of this Act, be the aggregate of- 52 of 1962.

(i) the value of the imported article determined under sub-section (1) of section 14 of the Customs Act, 1962 or the tariff value of such article fixed under sub-section (2) of that section, as the case may be; 52 of 1962.

(ii) any duty of customs chargeable on that article under section 12 of the Customs Act, 1962, and any sum chargeable on that article under any law for the time being in force as an addition to, and in the same manner as, a duty of customs, but not including the special additional duty referred to in sub-section (1); and 52 of 1962.

(iii) the additional duty of customs chargeable on that article under section 3 of this Act.

(3) The duty chargeable under this section shall be in addition to any other duty imposed under this Act or under any other law for the time being in force.

(4) The provisions of the Customs Act, 1962 and the rules and regulations made thereunder, including those relating to refunds and exemptions from duties, but excluding drawback, shall, so far as may be, apply to the duty chargeable under this section as they apply in relation to the duties leviable under that Act. 52 of 1962.

(5) Nothing contained in this section shall apply to any article, which is chargeable to additional duties levied under sub-section (1) of section 3 of the Additional Duties of Excise (Goods of Special Importance) Act, 1957.”; 58 of 1957.

(b) the First Schedule shall be amended in the manner specified in the Third Schedule.

Excise

Amendment of section 4A. 108. In the Central Excise Act, 1944 (hereinafter referred to as the Central Excise Act), in section 4A, for Explanation 1, the following Explanation shall be substituted, namely:— 1 of 1944.

‘Explanation 1.— For the purposes of this section, “retail sale price” means the maximum price at which the excisable goods in packaged form may be sold to the ultimate consumer and includes all taxes local or otherwise, freight, transport charges, commission payable to dealers, and all charges towards advertisement, delivery, packing, forwarding and the like, as the case may be, and the price is the sole consideration for such sale.’.

Amendment of section 5A. 109. In the Central Excise Act, in section 5A, after sub-section (4), the following sub-sections shall be inserted, namely:—

“(5) Every notification issued under sub-section (1) shall,—

(a) unless otherwise provided, come into force on the date of its issue by the Central Government for publication in the Official Gazette;

(b) also be published and offered for sale on the date of its issue by the Directorate of Publicity and Public Relations, Customs and Central Excise, New Delhi, under the Central Board of Excise and Customs constituted under the Central Boards of Revenue Act, 1963. 54 of 1963.

(6) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (5), where a notification comes into force on a date later than the date of its issue, the same shall be published and offered for sale by the said Directorate of Publicity and Public Relations on a date on or before the date on which the said notification comes into force.”.

(2) The Settlement Commission shall consist of a Chairman and as many Vice-Chairmen and other Members as the Central Government thinks fit and shall function within the Department of the Central Government dealing with Customs and Central Excise matters.

(3) The Chairman, Vice-Chairman and other Members of the Settlement Commission shall be appointed by the Central Government from amongst persons of integrity and outstanding ability, having special knowledge of, and experience in, administration of customs and central excise laws:

Provided that, where a member of the Board is appointed as the Chairman, Vice-Chairman or as a Member of the Settlement Commission, he shall cease to be a member of the said Board.

32A. (1) Subject to the other provisions of this Chapter, the jurisdiction, powers and authority of the Settlement Commission may be exercised by Benches thereof. Jurisdiction and powers of Settlement Commission.

(2) Subject to the other provisions of this section, a Bench shall be presided over by the Chairman or a Vice-Chairman and shall consist of two other Members.

(3) The Bench for which the Chairman is the presiding officer shall be the principal Bench and other Benches shall be known as additional Benches.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) and sub-section (2), the Chairman may authorise the Vice-Chairman or other Member appointed to one Bench to discharge also the functions of the Vice-Chairman or, as the case may be, other Member of another Bench.

(5) The principal Bench shall sit at Delhi and the Central Government shall, by notification in the Official Gazette, establish additional Benches at such places as it considers necessary.

(6) Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing provisions of this section, and subject to any rules that may be made in this behalf, when one of the persons constituting a Bench (whether such person be the presiding officer or other Member of the Bench) is unable to discharge his functions owing to absence, illness or any other cause or in the event of the occurrence of any vacancy either in the office of the presiding officer or in the office of one or the other members of the Bench, the remaining Members may function as the Bench and if the presiding officer of the Bench is not one of the remaining Members, the senior among the remaining Members shall act as the presiding officer of the Bench:

Provided that if at any stage of the hearing of any such case or matter, it appears to the presiding officer that the case or matter is of such a nature that it ought to be heard of by a Bench consisting of three Members, the case or matter may be referred by the presiding officer of such bench to the Chairman for transfer to such Bench as the Chairman may deem fit.

(7) Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing provisions of this section, the Chairman may, for the disposal of any particular case, constitute a special Bench consisting of more than three Members.

(8) Subject to the other provisions of this Chapter, the special Bench shall sit at a place to be fixed by the Chairman.

Vice-Chairman to act as Chairman or to discharge his functions in certain circumstances.

32B. (1) In the event of the occurrence of any vacancy in the office of the Chairman by reason of his death, resignation or otherwise, the Vice-Chairman or, as the case may be, such one of the Vice-Chairmen as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, authorise in this behalf, shall act as the Chairman until the date on which a new Chairman, appointed in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter to fill such vacancy, enters upon his office.

(2) When the Chairman is unable to discharge his functions owing to absence, illness or any other cause, the Vice-Chairman or, as the case may be, such one of the Vice-Chairmen as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, authorise in this behalf, shall discharge the functions of the Chairman until the date on which the Chairman resumes his duties.

Power of Chairman to transfer cases from one Bench to another.

32C. On the application of the assessee or the Chief Commissioner or Commissioner of Central Excise and after giving notice to them, and after hearing such of them as he may desire to be heard, or on his own motion without such notice, the Chairman may transfer any case pending before one Bench, for disposal, to another Bench.

Decision to be by majority.

32D. If the Members of a Bench differ in opinion on any point, the point shall be decided according to the opinion of the majority, if there is a majority, but if the members are equally divided, they shall state the point or points on which they differ, and make a reference to the Chairman who shall either hear the point or points himself or refer the case for hearing on such point or points by one or more of the other Members of the Settlement Commission and such point or points shall be decided according to the opinion of the majority of the Members of the Settlement Commission who have heard the case, including those who first heard it.

Application for settlement of cases.

32E. (1) An assessee may, at any stage of a case relating to him make an application in such form and in such manner as may be prescribed, and containing a full and true disclosure of his duty liability which has not been disclosed before the Central Excise Officer having jurisdiction, the manner in which such liability has been derived, the additional amount of excise duty accepted to be payable by him and such other particulars as may be prescribed including the particulars of such excisable goods in respect of which he admits short levy on account of misclassification or otherwise of such excisable goods, to the Settlement Commission to have the case settled and any such application shall be disposed of in the manner hereinafter provided:

Provided that no such application shall be made unless,—

(a) the applicant has filed monthly returns showing production, clearance and central excise duty paid in the prescribed manner;

(b) a show cause notice for recovery of duty issued by the Central Excise Officer has been received by the applicant; and

(c) the additional amount of duty accepted by the applicant in his application exceeds two lakh rupees:

Provided further that no application shall be entertained by the Settlement Commission under this sub-section in cases which are pending with the Appellate Tribunal or any Court:

Provided also that no application under this sub-section shall be made for the interpretation of the classification of excisable goods under the Central Excise Tariff Act, 1985.

(2) Where any excisable goods, books of accounts, other documents have been seized under the provisions of this Act or rules made thereunder, the assessee shall not be entitled to make an application under sub-section (1), before the expiry of one hundred and eighty days from the date of the seizure.

(3) Every application made under sub-section (1) shall be accompanied by such fees as may be prescribed.

(4) An application made under sub-section (1) shall not be allowed to be withdrawn by the applicant.

32F. (1) On receipt of an application under sub-section (1) of section 32E, the Settlement Commission shall call for a report from the Commissioner of Central Excise having jurisdiction and on the basis of the materials contained in such report and having regard to the nature and circumstances of the case or the complexity of the investigation involved therein, the Settlement Commission may, by order, allow the application to be proceeded with or reject the application:

Procedure on receipt of an application under section 32E.

Provided that an application shall not be rejected under this sub-section, unless an opportunity has been given to the applicant of being heard:

Provided further that the Commissioner of Central Excise shall furnish such report within a period of one month of the receipt of the communication from the Settlement Commission, failing which it shall be presumed that the Commissioner of Central Excise has no objection to such application; but he may raise objections at the time of hearing fixed by the Settlement Commission for admission of the application and the date of such hearing shall be communicated by the Settlement Commission to the applicant and the Commissioner of Central Excise within a period not exceeding two months from the date of receipt of such application, unless the presiding officer of the Bench extends the time, recording the reasons in writing.

(2) A copy of every order under sub-section (1) shall be sent to the applicant and to the Commissioner of Central Excise having jurisdiction.

(3) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (4), the applicant shall within thirty days of the receipt of a copy of the order under sub-section (1) allowing the application to be proceeded with, pay the amount of additional duty admitted by him as payable and shall furnish proof of such payment to the Settlement Commission.

(4) If the Settlement Commission is satisfied, on an application made in this behalf by the assessee that he is unable for good and sufficient reasons to pay the amount referred to in sub-section (3), within the time specified in that sub-section, it may extend the time for payment of the amount which remains unpaid or allow payment thereof by instalments, if the assessee furnishes adequate security for the payment thereof.

(5) Where the additional amount of duty referred to in sub-section (3) is not paid by the assessee within the time specified or extended period, as the case may be, the Settlement Commission may direct that the amount which remains unpaid, together with simple interest at the rate of eighteen per cent. per annum or at the rate notified by the Central Board of Excise and Customs from time to time on the amount remaining unpaid, be recovered, as the sum due to Central Government by the Central Excise Officer having jurisdiction over the assessee in accordance with the provisions of section 11.

(6) Where an application is allowed to be proceeded with under sub-section (1), the Settlement Commission may call for the relevant records from the Commissioner of Central Excise having jurisdiction and after examination of such records, if the Settlement Commission is of the opinion that any further enquiry or investigation in the matter is necessary, it may direct the Commissioner (Investigation) to make or cause to be made such further enquiry or investigation and furnish a report on the matters covered by the application and any other matter relating to the case.

(7) After examination of the records and the report of the Commissioner of Central Excise received under sub-section (1), and the report, if any, of the Commissioner (Investigation) of the Settlement Commission under sub-section (6), and after giving an opportunity to the applicant and to the Commissioner of Central Excise having jurisdiction to be heard, either in person or through a representative duly authorised in this behalf, and after examining such further evidence as may be placed before it or obtained by it, the Settlement Commission may, in accordance with the provisions of this Act, pass such order as it thinks fit on the matters covered by the application and any other matter relating to the case not covered by the application, but referred to in the report of the Commissioner of Central Excise and Commissioner (Investigation) under sub-section (1) or sub-section (6).

(8) Subject to the provisions of section 32A, the materials brought on record before the Settlement Commission shall be considered by the Members of the concerned Bench before passing any order under sub-section (7) and, in relation to the passing of such order, the provisions of section 32D shall apply.

(9) Every order passed under sub-section (7) shall provide for the terms of settlement including any demand by way of duty, penalty or interest, the manner in which any sums due under the settlement shall be paid and all other matters to make the settlement effective and shall also provide that the settlement shall be void if it is subsequently found by the Settlement Commission that it has been obtained by fraud, or misrepresentation of facts.

(10) Where any duty payable in pursuance of an order under sub-section (7) is not paid by the assessee within thirty days of the receipt of a copy of the order by him, then, whether or not the Settlement Commission has extended the time for payment of such duty or has allowed payment thereof by instalments, the assessee shall be liable to pay simple interest at the rate of eighteen per cent. per annum or at such other rate as notified by the Central Board of Excise and Customs on the amount remaining unpaid from the date of expiry of the period of thirty days aforesaid.

(11) Where a settlement becomes void as provided under sub-section (9) the proceedings with respect to the matters covered by the settlement shall be deemed to have been revived from the stage at which the application was allowed to be proceeded with by the Settlement Commission and the Central Excise Officer having jurisdiction may, notwithstanding anything contained in any other provision of this Act, complete such proceedings at any time before the expiry of two years from the date of the receipt of communication that the settlement became void.

Power of Settlement Commission to order provisional attachment to protect revenue.

32G. (1) Where, during the pendency of any proceeding before it, the Settlement Commission is of the opinion that for the purpose of protecting the interests of revenue it is necessary so to do, it may, by order, attach provisionally any property belonging to the applicant in the manner as may be prescribed.

(2) Every provisional attachment made by the Settlement Commission under sub-section (1) shall cease to have effect from the date, the sums due to the Central Government for which such attachment is made are discharged by the applicant and evidence to that effect is submitted to the Settlement Commission.

Power of Settlement Commission to reopen completed proceedings.

32H. If Settlement Commission is of the opinion (the reasons for such opinion to be recorded by it in writing) that, for the proper disposal of the case pending before it, it is necessary or expedient to reopen any proceeding connected with the case but which has been completed under this Act before application for settlement under section 32E was made, it may, with the concurrence of the applicant, reopen such proceeding and pass such order thereon as it thinks fit, as if the case in relation to which the application for settlement had been made by the applicant under that section covered such proceeding also:

Provided that no proceeding shall be reopened by the Settlement Commission under this section after the expiry of five years from the date of application.

powers and procedure of Settlement Commissions.

32-I. (1) In addition to the powers conferred on the Settlement Commission under this Chapter, it shall have all the powers which are vested in a Central Excise Officer under this Act or the rules made thereunder.

(2) Where an application made under section 32E has been allowed to be proceeded with under section 32F, the Settlement Commission shall, until an order is passed under sub-section (7) of section 32F, have, subject to the provisions of sub-section (6) of that section, exclusive jurisdiction to exercise the powers and perform the functions of any Central Excise Officer, under this Act in relation to the case.

(3) In the absence of any express direction by the Settlement Commission to the contrary, nothing in this Chapter shall affect the operation of the provisions of this Act in so far as they relate to any matters other than those before the Settlement Commission.

(4) The Settlement Commission shall, subject to the provisions of this Chapter, have power to regulate its own procedure and the procedure of Benches thereof in all matters arising out of the exercise of its powers, or of the discharge of its functions, including the places at which the Benches shall hold their sittings.

Inspection, etc., of reports.

32J. No person shall be entitled to inspect, or obtain copies of, any reports made by any Central Excise Officer to the Settlement Commission; but the Settlement Commission may, in its discretion furnish copies thereof to any such person on an application made to it in this behalf and on payment of the prescribed fee:

Provided that, for the purpose of enabling any person whose case is under consideration to rebut any evidence brought on record against him in any such report, the Settlement Commission shall, on an application made in this behalf, and on payment of the prescribed fee by such person, furnish him with a certified copy of any such report or part thereof relevant for the purpose.

Power of Settlement Commission to grant immunity from prosecution and penalty.

32K. (1) The Settlement Commission may, if it is satisfied that any person who made the application for settlement under section 32E has co-operated with the Settlement Commission in the proceedings before it and has made a full and true disclosure of his duty liability, grant to such person, subject to such conditions as it may think fit to impose, immunity from prosecution for any offence under this Act or under Indian Penal Code or under any other Central Act for the time being in force and also either wholly or in part from the imposition of any penalty, fine and interest under this Act, with respect to the case covered by the settlement:

Provided that no such immunity shall be granted by the Settlement Commission in cases where the proceedings for the prosecution for any such offence have been instituted before the date of receipt of the application under section 32E.

(2) An immunity granted to a person under sub-section (1) shall stand withdrawn if such person fails to pay any sum specified in the order of the settlement passed under sub-section (7) of section 32F within the time specified in such order or within such further time as may be allowed by the Settlement Commission, or fails to comply with any other condition subject to which the immunity was granted and thereupon the provisions of this Act shall apply as if such immunity had not been granted.

(3) An immunity granted to a person under sub-section (1) may, at any time, be withdrawn by the Settlement Commission, if it is satisfied that such person had, in the course of the settlement proceedings, concealed any particular material to the settlement or had given false evidence, and thereupon such person may be tried for the offence with respect to which the immunity was granted or for any other offence of which he appears to have been guilty in connection with the settlement and shall also become liable to the imposition of any penalty under this Act to which such person would have been liable, had no such immunity been granted.

32L. (1) The Settlement Commission may, if it is of opinion that any person who made an application for settlement under section 32E has not co-operated with the Settlement Commission in the proceedings before it, send the case back to the Central Excise Officer having jurisdiction who shall thereupon dispose of the case in accordance with the provisions of this Act as if no application under section 32E had been made.

Power of Settlement Commission to send a case back to the Central Excise Officer.

(2) For the purpose of sub-section (1), the Central Excise Officer shall be entitled to use all the materials and other information produced by the assessee before the Settlement Commission or the results of the inquiry held or evidence recorded by the Settlement Commission in the course of the proceedings before it as if such materials, information, inquiry and evidence had been produced before such Central Excise Officer or held or recorded by him in the course of the proceedings before him.

(3) For the purposes of the time limit under section 11A and for the purposes of interest under section 11BB, in a case referred to in sub-section (1), the period commencing on and from the date of the application to the Settlement Commission under section 32E and ending with the date of receipt by the Central Excise Officer of the order of the Settlement Commission sending the case back to the Central Excise Officer shall be excluded.

32M. Every order of settlement passed under sub-section (7) of section 32F shall be conclusive as to the matters stated therein and no matter covered by such order shall, save as otherwise provided in this Chapter, be reopened in any proceeding under this Act or under any other law for the time being in force.

Order of settlement to be conclusive.

32N. Any sum specified in an order of settlement passed under sub-section (7) of section 32F may, subject to such conditions if any, as may be specified therein, be recovered, and any penalty for default in making payment of such sum may be imposed and recovered as sums due to the Central Government in accordance with the provisions under section 11 by the Central Excise Officer having jurisdiction over the person who made the application for settlement under section 32E.

Recovery of sums due under order of settlement.

32-O. Where—

(i) an order of settlement passed under sub-section (7) of section 32F provides for the imposition of a penalty on the person who made the application under section 32E for settlement, on the ground of concealment of particulars of his duty liability; or

Bar on subsequent application for settlement in certain cases.

(ii) after the passing of an order of settlement under the said sub-section (7) in relation to a case, such person is convicted of any offence under this Act in relation to that case; or

(iii) the case of such person is sent back to the Central Excise Officer having jurisdiction by the Settlement Commission under section 32L, then, he shall not be entitled to apply for settlement under section 32E in relation to any other matter.

32P. Any proceedings under this Chapter before the Settlement Commission shall be deemed to be a judicial proceeding within the meaning of sections 193 and 228, and for the purposes of section 196 of the Indian Penal Code.”.

Proceedings before Settlement Commission to be judicial proceedings.

114. (1) In the case of goods specified in the Second Schedule, being goods manufactured in India, there shall be levied and collected as an additional duty of excise an amount calculated at the rate set forth in the said Schedule.

[See section 2(10)(c)]

RULES FOR COMPUTATION OF NET AGRICULTURAL INCOME

Rule 1.—Agricultural income of the nature referred to in sub-clause (a) of clause (1A) of section 2 of the Income-tax Act shall be computed as if it were income chargeable to income-tax under that Act under the head “Income from other sources” and the provisions of sections 57 to 59 of that Act shall, so far as may be, apply accordingly:

Provided that sub-section (2) of section 58 shall apply subject to the modification that the reference to section 40A therein shall be construed as not including a reference to sub-sections (3) and (4) of section 40A.

Rule 2.—Agricultural income of the nature referred to in sub-clause (b) or sub-clause (c) of clause (1A) of section 2 of the Income-tax Act [other than income derived from any building required as a dwelling-house by the receiver of the rent or revenue or the cultivator or the receiver of rent-in-kind referred to in the said sub-clause (c)] shall be computed as if it were income chargeable to income-tax under that Act under the head “Profits and gains of business or profession” and the provisions of sections 30, 31, 32, 36, 37, 38, 40, 40A [other than sub-sections (3) and (4) thereof], 41, 43, 43A, 43B and 43C of the Income-tax Act shall, so far as may be, apply accordingly.

Rule 3.—Agricultural income of the nature referred to in sub-clause (c) of clause (1A) of section 2 of the Income-tax Act, being income derived from any building required as a dwelling-house by the receiver of the rent or revenue or the cultivator or the receiver of rent-in-kind referred to in the said sub-clause (c) shall be computed as if it were income chargeable to income-tax under that Act under the head “Income from house property” and the provisions of sections 23 to 27 of that Act shall, so far as may be, apply accordingly.

Rule 4.—Notwithstanding anything contained in any other provisions of these rules, in a case where the assessee derives income from sale of tea grown and manufactured by him in India, such income shall be computed in accordance with rule 8 of the Income-tax Rule, 1962, and sixty per cent. of such income shall be regarded as the agricultural income of the assessee.

Rule 5.—Where the assessee is a member of an association of persons or a body of individuals (other than a Hindu undivided family, a company or a firm) which in the previous year has either no income chargeable to tax under the Income-tax Act or has total income not exceeding the maximum amount not chargeable to tax in the case of an association of persons or a body of individuals (other than a Hindu undivided family, a company or a firm) but has any agricultural income, then, the agricultural income or loss of the association or body shall be computed in accordance with these rules and the share of the assessee in the agricultural income or loss so computed shall be regarded as the agricultural income or loss of the assessee.

Rule 6.—Where the result of the computation for the previous year in respect of any source of agricultural income is a loss, such loss shall be set off against the income of the assessee, if any, for that previous year from any other source of agricultural income:

Provided that where the assessee is a member of an association of persons or a body of individuals and the share of the assessee in the agricultural income of the association or body, as the case may be, is a loss, such loss shall not be set off against any income of the assessee from any other source of agricultural income.

Rule 7.—Any sum payable by the assessee on account of any tax levied by the State Government on the agricultural income shall be deducted in computing the agricultural income.

Rule 8.—(1) Where the assessee has, in the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1998, any agricultural income and the net result of the computation of the agricultural income of the assessee for any one or more of the previous years relevant to the assessment years commencing on the 1st day of April, 1990 or the 1st day of April, 1991 or the 1st day of April, 1992 or the 1st day of April, 1993 or the 1st day of April, 1994 or the 1st day of April, 1995 or the 1st day of April, 1996 or the 1st day of April, 1997, is a loss, then, for the purposes of sub-section (2) of section 2 of this Act,—

(i) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1990, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1991 or the 1st day of April, 1992 or the 1st day of April, 1993 or the 1st day of April, 1994 or the 1st day of April, 1995 or the 1st day of April, 1996 or the 1st day of April, 1997,

(ii) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1991, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1992 or the 1st day of April, 1993 or the 1st day of April, 1994 or the 1st day of April, 1995 or the 1st day of April, 1996 or the 1st day of April, 1997,

(iii) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1992, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1993 or the 1st day of April, 1994 or the 1st day of April, 1995 or the 1st day of April, 1996 or the 1st day of April, 1997,

(iv) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1993, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1994 or the 1st day of April, 1995 or the 1st day of April, 1996 or the 1st day of April, 1997,

(v) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1994, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1995 or the 1st day of April, 1996 or the 1st day of April, 1997,

(vi) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1995, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1996 or the 1st day of April, 1997,

(vii) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1996, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1997,

(viii) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1997, shall be set off against the agricultural income of the assessee for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1998.

(2) Where the assessee has, in the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1999 or, if by virtue of any provision of the Income-tax Act, income-tax is to be charged in respect of the income of a period other than that previous year, in such other period, any agricultural income and the net result of the computation of the agricultural income of the assessee for any one or more of the previous years relevant to the assessment years commencing on the 1st day of April, 1991 or the 1st day of April, 1992 or the 1st day of April, 1993 or the 1st day of April, 1994 or the 1st day of April, 1995 or the 1st day of April, 1996 or the 1st day of April, 1997 or the 1st day of April, 1998, is a loss, then, for the purposes of sub-section (9) of section 2 of this Act,—

(i) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1991, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1992 or the 1st day of April, 1993 or the 1st day of April, 1994 or the 1st day of April, 1995 or the 1st day of April, 1996 or the 1st day of April, 1997 or the 1st day of April, 1998,

(ii) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1992, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1993 or the 1st day of April, 1994 or the 1st day of April, 1995 or the 1st day of April, 1996 or the 1st day of April, 1997 or the 1st day of April, 1998,

(iii) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1993, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1994 or the 1st day of April, 1995 or the 1st day of April, 1996 or the 1st day of April, 1997 or the 1st day of April, 1998,

(iv) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1994, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1995 or the 1st day of April, 1996 or the 1st day of April, 1997 or the 1st day of April, 1998,

(v) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1995, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1996 or the 1st day of April, 1997 or the 1st day of April, 1998,

(vi) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1996, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1997 or the 1st day of April, 1998,

(vii) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1997, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1998,

(viii) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1998, shall be set off against the agricultural income of the assessee for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1999.

(3) Where any person deriving any agricultural income from any source has been succeeded in such capacity by another person, otherwise than by inheritance, nothing in sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (2) shall entitle any person, other than the person incurring the loss, to have it set off under sub-rule (1) or, as the case may be, sub-rule (2).

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in this rule, no loss which has not been determined by the Assessing Officer under the provisions of these rules or the rules contained in Part IV of the First Schedule to the Finance Act, 1990 (12 of 1990), or of the First Schedule to the Finance (No. 2) Act, 1991 (49 of 1991), or of the First Schedule to the Finance Act, 1992 (18 of 1992), or of the First Schedule to the Finance Act, 1993 (38 of 1993), or of the First Schedule to the Finance Act, 1994 (32 of 1994), or of the First Schedule to the Finance Act, 1995 (22 of 1995), or of the First Schedule to the Finance (No. 2) Act, 1996 (33 of 1996) or of the First Schedule to the Finance Act, 1997 (26 of 1997), shall be set off under sub-rule (1) or, as the case may be, sub-rule (2).

Rule 9.—Where the net result of the computation made in accordance with these rules is a loss, the loss so computed shall be ignored and the net agricultural income shall be deemed to be nil.

Rule 10.—The provisions of the Income-tax Act relating to procedure for assessment (including the provisions of section 288A relating to rounding off of income) shall, with the necessary modifications, apply in relation to the computation of the net agricultural income of the assessee as they apply in relation to the assessment of the total income.

Rule 11.—For the purposes of computing the net agricultural income of the assessee, the Assessing Officer shall have the same powers as he has under the Income-tax Act for the purposes of assessment of the total income.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The object of the Bill is to give effect to the financial proposals of the Central Government for the financial year 1998-99. The notes on clauses explain the various provisions contained in the Bill.

YASHWANT SINHA.

NEW DELHI;

The 1st June, 1998.

PRESIDENT'S RECOMMENDATION UNDER ARTICLES 117 AND 274 OF THE CONSTITUTION OF INDIA

[Copy of letter No. 3(2)-B(D)/98, dated the 1st June, 1998 from Shri Yashwant Sinha, Minister of Finance, to the Secretary-General, Lok Sabha.]

The President, having been informed of the subject matter of the proposed Bill, recommends under clause (1) of article 117, read with clause (1) of article 274, of the Constitution of India, the introduction of the Finance (No. 2) Bill, 1998, to the Lok Sabha and also recommends to the Lok Sabha the consideration of the Bill.

2. The Bill will be introduced in the Lok Sabha immediately after the presentation of the Budget on the 1st June, 1998.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

Clause 113 of the Bill seeks to insert a new Chapter V relating to setting up of a Customs and Central Excise Settlement Commission on the lines of a similar Commission already working under the Income-tax Act, 1961. To begin with, it is proposed to constitute a principal Bench at Delhi and three additional Benches at Mumbai, Chennai and Calcutta. The recurring expenditure for the said four Benches of the Settlement Commission in respect of salaries, wages, rents, rates, taxes and office expenses are estimated to be Rs.1,99,01,376 per annum. The non-recurring expenditure in respect of office equipment, office furniture, electrical installations and motor vehicles is estimated to be Rs.1,00,64,000.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Clause 4 of the Bill seeks to amend clause (11) of section 10 of the Income tax Act relating to definition of 'block of assets'. The said clause confers powers upon the Central Board of Direct Taxes to prescribe the percentage of depreciation in respect of 'block of assets' which means a group of assets falling within a class of assets being building, machinery, plant or furniture. The definition of 'block of asset' is being amended so as to include the intangible assets such as know-how, patents, copyrights, trade-marks, licences, franchises or similar business or commercial rights. Now it is proposed to confer power upon the Boards to prescribe depreciation in respect of the said intangible assets.

Clause 7 of the Bill, inter alia, seeks to substitute clause (23G) of section 10 of the Income-tax Act relating to certain exemptions. The said clause (23G) proposes to exempt income by way of interest of an infrastructure capital fund or infrastructure capital company from primary investment in infrastructure enterprise wholly engaged in developing, maintaining and operating infrastructure facility. It is proposed to confer power upon the Central Board of Direct Taxes to make rules in respect of applications to be made by the said infrastructure enterprises to the Central Government for approval and also prescribe the conditions to be satisfied by the aforesaid enterprises.

The new sub-clause also seeks to empower the Central Board of Direct Taxes to notify 'infrastructure facility' which is of similar nature specified in clause (c) of the Explanation to the said clause (23G) which fulfils the condition specified in sub-section (4A) of section 80-IA of the Income-tax Act.

Clause 12 of the Bill seeks to insert a new section 33ABA in the Income tax Act relating to Site Restoration Fund. Under the new section, certain deductions are admissible subject to certain conditions specified therein. One of the conditions is that the assessee furnishes the report of audit in the prescribed form duly signed and verified by an accountant, as defined in the Explanation below sub-section (2) of section 288. The proviso to sub-section (2) of the new section provides that it would be sufficient compliance by the assessee if he furnishes the said report and a further report in a case where such assessee gets the accounts of his business audited under any other law. It is proposed to confer powers upon the Central Board of Direct Taxes to prescribe the form of such further report to be furnished by the assessee.

Sub-section (9) of the proposed new section 33ABA confers power upon the Central Government to direct, by notification in the Official Gazette, that the deduction under the new section shall not be allowed after such date as may be specified in such notification.

Clause 32 of the Bill seeks to substitute new section 80DD for section 80DD and section 80DDA of the Income-tax Act for allowing deduction in respect of maintenance including medical treatment of certain category of handicapped dependants. Sub-clause (ii) of clause (b) of sub-section (4) of the said new section 80DD proposes to confer power upon the Central Board of Direct Taxes to specify in the rules the permanent physical disability (including blindness) or mental retardation for the purposes of deduction under the said section 80DD.

Clause 34 of the Bill seeks to insert new section 80GG of the Income-tax Act relating to deductions in respect of rents paid. It is proposed to confer power upon the Central Board of Direct Taxes to prescribe certain conditions or limitations subject to which deduction of the amount specified under the new section shall be allowed.

Clause 35 of the Bill proposes to insert a new section 80HHBA in the Income-tax Act relating to deduction in respect of profits and gains from housing project in certain cases. One of the conditions specified therein requires the assessee to furnish, alongwith his return of income, a report of audit of the accounts in the prescribed form duly signed and verified by such accountants as defined in the Explanation below sub-section (2) of section 288 of the Income-tax Act. It is proposed to confer power upon the Central Board of Direct Taxes to prescribe the form of the said audit report.

Clause 37 of the Bill seeks to amend section 80-IA of the Income-tax Act relating to deduction in respect of profits and gains from industrial undertakings, etc., in certain cases. The undertakings engaged in the infrastructure facilities qualify for deductions under section 80-IA subject to certain conditions specified in the said section. This clause, inter alia, proposes to extend the deductions available under the said section to the housing projects. Sub-clause (iv) of clause (ca) of sub-section (12) of section 80-IA confers power upon the Central Government to prescribe the authority for approving the housing projects eligible for deduction under the said section 80-IA.

Clause 39 of the Bill seeks to insert a new section 80JJAA in the Income-tax Act relating to deduction in respect of employment of new workmen. Under the provisions of new section, an assessee, being an Indian company, shall be allowed certain deductions subject to certain conditions specified in the said section 80JJAA. One of the conditions specified in clause (b) of sub-section (2) of the new section 80JJAA requires the assessee to furnish alongwith the return of income the report of the accountant as defined in the Explanation below sub-section (2) of section 288 giving such particulars as may be prescribed by the Central Board of Direct Taxes.

Clause 42 of the Bill seeks to amend section 139 of the Income-tax Act relating to return of income. Section 139 specifies certain conditions for filing the return. One of the conditions specified in the proviso to sub-section (1) of section 139 is that any person, who incurs expenditure for himself or any other person on travel to any foreign country, shall be required to file return of his income. This clause, inter alia, seeks to insert Explanation 4 so as to confer power upon the Central Board of Direct Taxes to specify in the Official Gazette the neighbouring countries or such other places of pilgrimage which shall not be included in the condition of travel to any foreign country for the purposes of proviso to sub-section (1) of section 139.

Clause 43 of the Bill proposes to amend section 139 A of the Income-tax Act relating to permanent account number. This clause, inter alia, proposes that a person, who has applied, but has not been allotted the permanent account number, shall quote General Index Register Number in all his returns, correspondence, challans for payment of any sum, or such transactions as may be prescribed by the Central Board of Direct Taxes under sub-section (5) of section 139 A. This clause confers powers upon the Central Board of Direct Taxes to make rules providing for the form of the declaration to be made by a person who has not been allotted a permanent account number or who does not have General Index Register Number.

Clause 49 of the Bill proposes to amend section 192 of the Income-tax Act relating to deduction of tax at source from salaries. This clause inter alia, allows the loss under the head "Income from house property" to be taken into account for making deduction under section 192 by any person responsible for paying any income chargeable under the head "Salaries". The proposed deductions relating to loss under the head "Income from house property" shall be taken into account on assessee's furnishing the particulars of such loss to the person responsible for making the payment under sub-section (1) of section 139. The new sub-section (2B) of section 192 confers power upon the Central Board of Direct Taxes to prescribe the form in which the assessee furnishes the particulars of such loss and the manner in which such form be verified.

Clause 50 of the Bill seeks to amend section 245N of the Income-tax Act relating to definitions for the purposes of Chapter XIX-B relating to advance rulings. This clause proposes to amend the definition of "applicant" specified in clause (b) of section 245 N. It is proposed to confer power upon the Central Government to notify in the Official Gazette the class of persons who shall be allowed to file an application under the said Chapter.

Clause 54 of the Bill seeks to amend section 253 of the Income-tax Act relating to appeal to the Appellate Tribunal. This clause proposes to confer powers upon the Central Government to prescribe the form in which an appeal shall be made to the Appellate Tribunal on or after the 1st day of October, 1998 and the manner in which such appeal be verified.

Clause 66 of the Bill seeks to amend the First Schedule to the Income-tax Act relating to insurance business. This clause confers powers upon the Central Board of Direct Taxes to prescribe any other provision in addition to the provision for any tax, dividend or reserve which shall be added back in computing the profit and gains of other insurance business.

Clause 72 of the Bill seeks to insert a new section 23A in the Wealth-tax Act relating to appealable orders before Commissioner (Appeals). This clause confers powers upon the Central Board of Direct Taxes to prescribe the form of appeal to the Commissioner (Appeals) and the manner in which such form be verified.

Clause 81 of the Bill seeks to amend section 15 of the Interest-tax Act relating to appeal to Commissioner (Appeals). This clause confers powers upon the Central Board of Direct Taxes to prescribe the form of appeal which may be filed on or after the 1st day of October, 1998 and the manner in which such appeal be verified.

Clause 87 of the Bill seeks to amend section 22 of the Expenditure-tax Act relating to appeal to Commissioner (Appeals). This clause confers powers upon the Central Board of Direct Taxes to prescribe the form of appeal which shall be filed on or after the 1st day of October, 1998 and the manner in which such appeal be verified.

Clauses 89 to 101 of the Bill contain provisions in respect of Kar Vivad Samadhan Scheme, 1998 for settlement of certain disputed direct tax arrears and indirect tax arrears. It is proposed to confer powers upon the Chief Commissioner of Income-tax and Chief Commissioner of Central Excise to notify the designated authority not below the rank of Commissioner of Income tax and Commissioner of Central Excise, for the purposes of the said scheme.

It is also proposed to confer powers upon the Central Board of Direct Taxes to prescribe (a) the form in which a declaration may be made under section 91 and the manner in which such declaration be verified (b) the form of certificates which may be granted under sub-section (1) of section 93 (c) the manner in which the orders may be published under sub-section (2) of section 99 (d) and any other matter which is to be, or may be, prescribed or in respect of which provision is to be made by rules.

Clause 104 of the Bill seeks to substitute new sections 53 to 55 in the Customs Act, 1962, sub-section (1) of the proposed section 54 empowers the Central Board of Excise and Customs to make regulations to provide form in which the bill of transshipment shall be presented to the proper officer under said sub-section. Sub-section (3) of the said section 54 empowers the said Board to make regulations to provide conditions subject to which the proper officer may allow the goods to be transhipped without payment of duty under the sub-section.

Clause 105 of the Bill seeks to insert new Chapter XIVA in the Customs Act, 1962. Sub-section (1) of section 127B of the proposed Chapter XIVA empowers the Central Government to make rules to specify the form and manner for making application under that sub-section and other particulars which that application shall contain and the fees to be accompanied with such application. Sub-section (1) of section 127D of the said Chapter empowers the Central Government to make rules to specify the manner in which any property may be provisionally attached under that sub-section. Section 127G of the said Chapter empowers the Central Government to make rules to specify fee to be paid for obtaining copies under that sub-section. Proviso to said section 127G empowers the Central Government to make rules to specify the fees to be paid to obtain certified copy under that proviso.

Clause 113 of the Bill seeks to insert new Chapter V in the Central Excise Act, 1944. Sub-section (1) of section 32E empowers the Central Government to make rules to provide the form and manner of making application under that sub-section and other particulars which that application may contain and the fees to be accompanied with such application. The said sub-section (1) also empowers the Central Government to make rules to prescribe the manner in which the applicant is required to file monthly return before making application under that sub-section. Sub-section (1) of section 32G of the said Chapter empowers the Central Government to make rules to provide the manner in which any property may be provisionally attached under that sub-section. Section 32J of the said Chapter empowers the Central Government to make rules to prescribe the fee to be paid for obtaining copies under that sub-section. Proviso to said section 32J empowers the Central Government to make rules to prescribe the fees to be paid for obtaining a certified copy under that proviso.

Clause 119 of the Bill seeks to amend the Finance Act, 1994. Sub-clause (1) of the said clause proposes to substitute new section 66 for existing section 66 of the said Act. Sub sections (1), (2), (3) (4) and (5) of the proposed new section 66 empowers the Central Government to make rules to provide the manner of collection of service tax levied under those sub-sections. Clause (4) of the said clause proposes to substitute new sections 68 to 71 for the existing sections 68 to 71 of the Finance Act, 1994. Sub-section (1) of the proposed section 68 empowers Central Government to make rules to provide the manner in which and the period within which the service tax shall be paid under that sub-section. Sub-section (2) of the said section 68 empowers the Central Government to make rules to provide the manner of payment of service tax under that sub-section. The proposed section 69 empowers the Central Government to make rules to provide the form in which application shall be made under that section for registration. The proposed section 70 empowers the Central Government to make rules to provide form and manner in which and the frequency at which a return shall be furnished or caused to be furnished under that section. Sub-clause (7) of the said clause 119 proposes to substitute new section 75 for the existing section 75 of the Finance Act, 1994. The proposed section 75 empowers Central Government to prescribe period to credit the tax or any part thereof to the account of Central Government for the purposes of that section. Sub-clause (12) of the proposed clause 119 proposes to substitute new sub-section (2) for existing sub-section (2) of section 94 of the Finance Act, 1994. Clauses (a) to (f) of the proposed sub-section (2) enumerates the details regarding which in particular the Central Government may make rules.

The matters in respect of which notification may be issued or rules may be made in accordance with the aforesaid provisions of the Bill are matters of procedure and detail and it is not practicable to provide for them in the Bill itself.

The delegation of legislative power is, therefore, of a normal character.
